ST. LOUIS.

Tobacco and Whisky Frauds—Rascally Revenue Officers—The Election To-Day.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

ST. LOUIS, April 6.—The United States Circuit Court met to-day, and Judge Krekel delivered a charge to the grand jury, in which he drew special attention to the many violations of the United States laws, especially the Internal Revenue law. The tobacco and whisky frauds, he said, were becoming more and more numerous, and the system is extensively carried on by officers, by levying black mail. They should be thoroughly investigated; also the practice of compromising violations of the revenue law by collectors, and the exacting of large and illegal fees by Government officials.

The election to-morrow will be an unusually important one. In addition to the election of Councilmen, School Directors and Street Railroad Commissioner, the sense of the people will be taken on the building of a city hall, adding about fifty acres of land to Lafayette Park, and giving the credit of the city to the Bridge Company, involving in all about five miliion dollars.

ALABAMA.

Order Concerning the Kuk-Klux-Klan.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

MONTGOMERY, April 6.—Gen. Shepperd, commanding the sub-District of Alabama, to-day issued an order in relation to the Kuk-Klux-Klan, and ordering that the various officers, marshals, magistrates, constables, chiefs of police and police will be held accountable by post commanders over their respective districts for the suppression of iniquitous organizations, and the apprehension of its members, wherever found. When apprehensions are made, and the code of Alabama is silent on the subject of the offences of which they are charged, the prisoners will be turned over to the commander of the proper military post, with a view to trial by military commission. All placards and newspaper cards of the Kuk-lux-Klan are prohibited, and the ignorance of their existence will not be held as adequate excuse, it being the business of the civil and military officers to know what appertains to their duty. Citizens not holding office likewise will not be held guiltless, for outrages will be viewed as evidence of neglect of duty.

FORTIETH CONGRESS.

Proceedings in the Senate—General Business—Naval Appropriation Bill.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, April 6, 1868.

SENATE.

The CHAIR submitted resolutions of the Legislature of Minnesota endorsing the action of Congress in regard to impeachment. Tabled.

Mr. RAMSAY presented resolution of the same Legislature for the improvement of the Mississippi river, recommended by General Warren and others. Referred.

Mr. COLE presented a petition of citizens of California, asking aid for the Southern Pacific Railroad. Referred.

Mr. WILSON introduced a bill to relieve the political disabilities of certain citizens of Georgia. Referred to the Judiciary Committee.

Mr. TRUMBULL introduced a bill extending the provisions of the act of February 21st, 1863, which allows the United States to prosecute appeals without giving security, to allow writs of error, appeals, or other process in law, admiralty or equity, issuing from or brought up to the Circuit Court of the United States and ordered to be placed on calender.

Also, a joint resolution directing the Secretary of War to issue such quartermaster stores to the expedition engaged in the exploration of the River Colorado as may be necessary. Referred to the Naval Committee.

Mr. EDMUNDS offered a resolution asking the Secretary of War to inform the Senate what was the practice in respect to the settlement of public accounts and the issue of requisitions therefor by the Secretary of War upon the Treasury prior to the passage of the late act respecting the prompt settlement of accounts, and whether any defects exist under the law in that respect.

Mr. FESSENDEN called up the joint resolution authorizing the Secretary of State to adjust certain claims and to direct the payment thereof. It directs the payment out of indemnity received from the Japanese Government of a certain amount for damages sustained by the steamer Monitor at the hands of the Japanese.

A discussion ensued, some Senators holding the owners of other vesels had equally meritorious claims, but the resolution was passed without amendment.

Mr. SHERMAN called up the bill to refund the duties paid under protest in 1867 on the bell imported from France and directed for the use of St. Mary's Institute and Notre Dame University, Indiana.

After half an hour's discussion of the principle involved, several opposing the establishment of the precedent, the bill passed.

The CHAIR then stated the special order to be the resolution to admit to a seat on the floor reporters of the Associated Press.

By consent the resolution was temporarily laid aside and the naval appropriation bill taken up.

The question was on an amendment providing for the enlistment of 1,250 apprentices and boys, exclusive of 8,500 able seamen now authorized.

Messrs. CONKLING and EDMUNDS advocated restricting the total force to 8,500, including apprentices and boys.

Mr. GRIMES explained and advocated the apprentice system, and argued it necessary to keep up the navy to a respectable footing in order to meet any emergency. He held the amendment of the Committee simply increased the number of the force of the navy 596 under the apprentice law.

The amendment of the Committee was agreed to.

Mr. CONKLING moved to amend by making the number exclusive of apprentices and boys 7,500 instead of 8,000. Adopted by twenty-three to twenty.

On motion of Mr. MORRILL (Me.), an amendment increasing from $32,000 to $70,000 the appropriation for the pay of the civil establishment under the Bureau of Medicine and Surgery at the several Navy Hospitals and Yards, was adopted.

Mr. SHERMAN offered the following as an additional section:

That all unexpended balances existing on the 1st of July next under the several heads of appropriations provided for in this act shall be carried to the surplus fund, unless the same is necessary to pay expenditures made during the fiscal year, or unless necessary to execute contracts made before said date.

Mr. CONNESS opposed the amendment, saying he had been informed by the Secretary of War that with this provision in the army appropriation bill, it would be impossible to carry on that department.

Mr. SHERMAN had heard that bugaboo before. There was not the slightest weight in it. He considered it necessary that Congress should retain control over these balances, so no money can be drawn from the treasnry unless in pursuance of law, and he thought it would be unwise to leave discretion in the hands of any Department. The provision not commencing until the 1st of July next, when the next annual appropriation comes in, he pointed out where they could commence with a new balance sheet.

Mr. FESSENDEN had not sufficient information to warrant him in voting for it. While he was perfectly willing a large war balance shall be carried into the Treasury, he said that appropriations made for a year cannot be expended within that year; that contracts would be made or debts incurred which could not be foreseen, and therefore the amendment would be of no practical value. He thought it would be unsafe without consultation of the heads of departments.

Mr. GRIMES read a letter received by him from the Secretary of the Navy, expressing the opinion that confusion in the accounts of the Department would result from such a provision, as well as the employment of new clerks in the Anditor's office, and trouble would be experienced in the payment of men returning from a long cruise.

Mr. SHERMAN replied that the accounts in such cases were carried forward from year to year, and he thought no trouble would come from that source.

More debate followed, whereupon the amendment was agreed to.

Mr. SHERMAN offered another amendment directing the Secretary of the Treasury, in his next annual message, to state all the balances of appropriations made during the present session for each branch of the public service remaining unexpended on the first of July next, showing also the amounts necessary to execute the contracts or pay expenditures on each of such balances. Adopted.

The bill then passed in Committee of the Whole, and being before the Senate,

Mr. HOWE asked a separate vote on the amendment increasing the appropriation for the civil establishment of naval hospitals, which, after discussion, was agreed to.

Mr. DRAKE asked a separate vote on Mr. CONKLING'S amendment, reducing the number of seamen from 85,000 to 75,000.

Mr. HENDRICKS asked upon what information this change had been made, and condemned such legislation in the face of the unanimous opinion of the Naval Committee.

After debate, without action on the amendment, the Senate adjourned.

Amount in Treasury in coin	$ 99,279,617 68
Do. do. in currency	23,230,027 34
Total	$ 122,509,645 02

The amount of debt less cash in the Treasury has decreased during the month $619,935 48.

COTTON CLAIMS DECIDED.

The Supreme Court this morning affirmed the decree of the District Court of the United States for the Southern District of Illinois in the cases of claims of Lewore & Co., Wittenburg & Doyle and Grieff & Zunts, for nine bundred and thirty-five bales of cotton captured by Porter's fleet on Wachita River, Louisiana, in April, 1864, and dismissed all the claims. The opinion of the Court was read by Justice Swayne, who placed the decision of the Court exclusively on the non-intercourse act of July 13th, 1861. The Court says prohibition was the rule and license the exception, and military permits were void.

THE M'ARDLE CASE.

The action of the U. S. Supreme Court in the M'Ardle case has been generally misunderstood. The case was argued on the day originally fixed. Conference day is Saturday in each week. Other working days have been fully occupied in hearing the argument of cases in order on the docket. On the first conference day after the argument the case was not reached, although the conference occupied all day. The next conference day Congress had already passed the act to repeal jurisdiction in such cases, and the act was before the President. Gentlemen, practitioners at the bar, without respect to politics, say the Court could not have anticipated legislation, and if it had, could not possibly have run a race with Congress; that it would have been ridiculous affectation not to take notice of it and would hardly have been consistent with the dignity of Courts and the respect due to the other branches of the Government, to proceed with the matter until the President had either approved or vetoed the bill. On the reception of his veto it was passed by the required majority in both Houses. When Mr. Black, for McArdle, moved to be heard upon the question of the effect of the law, the Court, although it had several weeks before fixed Tuesday the 31st of March, for the closing of the docket, agreed to hear the argument in the case on Wednesday, the 1st of April. Of that, however, the counsel did not take notice, not having appeared in Court until after the subject had been postponed.

HABEAS CORPUS WRITS ISSUED.

In the Supreme Court to-day a petition was presented from Hamilton Martin and Wm. E. Gills, held in prison in Florida under an indictment in the Federal Court for the murder of freedmen, asking for writs of habeas corpus and certiorari, returnable at this term. The petitioners hold that the State Courts alone can take jurisdiction, This being the last day of the present term, the writs asked for were granted, returnable on the first day of the next term.

MRS. GEN. GAINES' CASE.

An opinion was delivered reversing the judgment of the Circuit Court of Louisiana and re-affirming the legitimacy of Mrs. General Gaines, and confirming her in all her rights of property in that State.

PATENTS ISSUED.

For the week ending on the 14th inst. three hundred and one patents will be issued from the Patent Office.

GEN. SHERMAN.

Lieutenant General Sherman was before the Pacific Railroad Committee to-day and made a statement showing that large sums could be saved by the Government by constructing the Kansas Pacific Railroad.

IMPEACHMENT WITNESS.

Hon. Lewis D. Campbell, of Ohio, arrived here to-day to testify for the defense on the impeachment trial.

SUFFERING INDIANS.

The Secretary of the Interior sent a communication to the Senate showing that one of the tribes of Indians, more than 5,000 in number, are in a suffering condition, and recommending an appropriation for their relief.

PACIFIC RAILROAD PROGRESS.

Twenty miles more of the Union Pacific Railroad, Kansas Branch, are finished and waiting for inspection.

Union Pacific Railway—Meeting of Stockholders.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

LAWRENCE, Kansas, April 6.—The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Union Pacific Railway, Eastern Division, was held here to-day. Reports of the Board of Directors and Superintendent were read and approved. From these reports it appears three hundred and thirty-five miles of main line and thirty-four miles of branch road are now in operation; that the increase during last year was one hundred and ninety-nine miles. Average length of road operated last year two hundred and sixty miles; total earnings, $1,883,853; net earnings, $606,235; gross earnings per mile, $7,229. Twenty miles of track additional was completed on Saturday, taking the track within thirty miles of Pond Creek, which point it is expected to reach on the 15th of May. The present indications are that business this year, on the extended road, will double that of last year. The following Board of Directors was elected. John D. Perry, Adolphus Meier, C. S. Greeley, Wm. McPherson, and Thos. L. Price, of Missouri; W. H. Clement and H. J. Jowett, of Ohio; Thos. A. Scott and John McManus, of Pennsylvania; John D. Perry was re-elected President, Adolphus Meir, Vice President, C. C. Lamborn, Secretary, and W. J. Palmer Treasurer. The company now have twenty-nine locomotives, twenty passenger and seven hundred and seventy-one freight cars.

Railroad Bill Vetoed.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

ALBANY, N. Y., April 6.—Governor Fenton has vetoed the bill appropriating $250,000 in aid of the Whitehall and Plattsburg Railroad.

ELECTIONS YESTERDAY.

CONNECTICUT.

English, Democrat, Re-elected Governor by About 1600 Majority—Legislature Republican.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW HAVEN, April 6.—The annual election for State officers took place to-day. The Republicans voted for Marshal Jewell and the Democrats for James E. English. The following are among the returns received:

Greenwich—Jewell, 412; English, 674.
New Canaan—Jewell, 282; English, 260.
Darien—Jewell, 187; English, 118.
Stamford—Jewell, 969; English, 673.
Plymouth—Jewell, 468; English, 308.
Wallingford—Jewell, 304; English, 396.
Winchester—Jewell, 459; English, 328.
East Hoddam—Jewell, 340; English, 234.
New Milford—Jewell, 352; English, 421.
Danbury—Jewell, 836; English, 785.
Newtown—Jewell, 263; English, 443.
Norwich—Jewell 310 majority.
Stonington—Jewell, 17 majority.
New Haven—Jewell, 3,524, English, 5,777.
Bridgeport—Jewell, 180 majority.
Milford—Jewell, 315, English, 425.
Norwalk—Jewell, 49 majority.
Killingly—Jewell 166 majority.
Putnam—Jewell 233 majority.
Thomas—Jewell 243 majority.
Waterbury—Jewell 916; English 1,243.

HARTFORD, April 6.—Returns from twenty-six of the twenty-seven towns in Hartford county show a gain for Jewell of one hundred and seven. New London county shows a gain of two hundred and fifty for Jewell.

A few returns from Litchfield county show Republican gains.

Hartford gives English 630 majority, and New Haven gives 2,300 majority for English. It is probable that English is re-elected.

NEW HAVEN, April 6.—Ninety-one cities and towns give English, Democrat, 18,025; Jewell, Republican, 15,821. The Democratic gain is about 1,000. The Democrats claim the election of English by 2,000 majority.

New Haven gives Jewell 3,524, English 7,777.

Hartford gives English 624 majority.

NEW HAVEN, April 6.—The Democratic majority is 1,733.

LATER.—One hundred and twenty-six towns give English 1,733 majority. The forty towns to hear from gave English 298 majority last year.

The Senate will stand twelve Republicans to nine Democrats. The first district is yet in doubt. The Republican majority in the House will be about twenty.

NEW HAVEN, April 6.—Windham county, complete—1,489 majority for Jewell.

New London county, complete—Jewell 610 majority.

LATEST.—The entire State, except three small towns give English, 1,437 majority. The three remaining towns gave English 163 majority last year. His majority is about 1,600.

MICHIGAN.

The Constitution Defeated—Probable Success of Prohibition.

DETROIT, April 6.—The returns coming in clearly indicate the defeat of the Constitution. We cannot yet judge how the vote on prohibition has gone. Negro suffrage is embodied in the new Constitution, the only separate articles submitted being the prohibition and annual or biennial sessions of the Legislature

9 P. M.—Thirty-five towns heard from give 2,162 against the Constitution. Seventeen towns give 184 majority for pohibition.

DETROIT, April 6—10 P. M.—Returns received from fifty towns give four thousand and five against the Constitution. The result on prohibition, as far as heard from, is a majority for it of one hundred and thirty-one. This will be greatly overbalanced by the vote of Detroit. The temperance men are hopeful.

DETROIT, April 6.—Complete returns of this city give for the Constitution 2,453, against 5,892, only one ward giving a majority for it; for prohibition 1,534, against 6,567; for annual sessions 755, against 6,672.

At this hour, 10:30 p. m., returns from seventy towns, including Detroit, show a majority of 8,156 against the Constitution. The vote on the prohibition outside of Detroit is about equal. It is thought the returns from the rural districts will overcome the 5,000 majority given against the measure in Detroit.

DETROIT, April 4.—Midnight.—Returns from one hundred towns give 10,653 against the Constitution. The vote on prohibition will be quite close, and it is impossible to tell to-night what the result will be. The municipal elections throughout the State show no especial change from last year.

KANSAS

ATCHISON, Kan., April 6.—The city election to-day resulted in the choice of a Democratic Mayor by twenty-one majority. The Republicans elect a majority of Councilmen and members of the School Board. They also elect a constable.

LAWRENCE, April 6.—The Republican city ticket was elected to-day. Although the Democrats polled a pretty large vote, this is only the second time in the history of the city that the Democrats have had a ticket in the field.

Cincinnati Charter Election.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

CINCINNATI, April 6.—Eleven O'clock.—The city election passed off quietly to-day. The vote was light. The nominations were: For Judge of Supreme Court, Clerk of Police Court, City Commissioner, Trustee of Water Works, Wharf Master, Director of City Infirmary, and one member of Council from each ward. The contest is close. Full returns are not yet in. The Republicans claim to have elected their whole ticket, while the Democrats claim the election of two of their candidates and a gain of four or five Councilmen. There were three tickets in the field, Republican, Democratic and Workingmen's.

11:30—Nearly complete returns from the wards indicate that the Democrats have elected their entire ticket, with the exception of Clerk of the Police Court and Director of the City Infirmary. The Council will be Republican by a small majority.

Indiana Charter Elections.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

INDIANAPOLIS, April 6.—The vote polled at the township election here to-day was small. The Republican ticket was elected by eight hundred majority.

Election at Dayton, Ohio.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

DAYTON, OHIO, April 6.—The Republican ticket is elected by majorities varying from fifty to three hundred.

Toledo (Ohio) Election.

TOLEDO, O., April 6.—The Republican majority on the city ticket is 273—loss since October 116. City Council, ten Republicans and six Democrats.

VIRGINIA.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

RICHMOND, April 6.—The Convention has finished all the reports before it and will adjourn this week.

There is much interest in Republican circles regarding the appointment of the new Governor. Two committees have gone to Washington to protest against it. Governor Pierpoint is also there. A message from General Grant is stated to have been received, directing General Schofield to suspend his order till further orders. General Wells, the new Governor, is not here. A dispatch from Washington, from high authority, announces he will be here to-morrow and be inaugurated.

—Gen. Butler has n't the most sympathetic voice in the world. One correspondent compares it to the screeching of a hundred saws, commingled with rumbling of an artillery carriage across a rugged pavement, while another one says that it resembles in its intonations the combined and varied noises of a cracked barrel organ and a chorus of bull terriers in a street fight—now sharp and snappish, and again wheezy and rasping.

—The elephant Romeo which killed its keeper a few months since at its winter quarters near Philadelphia, has remained since unconquered and too savage to be approached. But last week, one of his old keepers under took the duty of breaking him in. Having entangled him with chains and thrown him down, it was 48 hours before the brute gave up. He was then led out, as docile as a spaniel.

—Of two very prominent men at Washington, just now, while the Impeachment is going on, a letter remarks: Grant, during all this game of chess, is quiet as a corner square of the chess-board. He rides, roves, reads a little, and rises all the time in the situation. Judge Chase said to me on Friday that he wished his friends would let him alone and never mention him again in connection with the Presidency.

How the Case is to be Closed.

Mr. Stanbery is to close the Impeachment case, preceded by Mr. Evarts. Whether the other members of counsel will speak depends upon the action of the Senate. The rule in the matter prescribes that the case shall be closed by two on each side, unless the Senate shall agree that the managers themselves will ask that the rule he suspended for them and if this is done, counsel will receive the same indulgence. It is known that Gen. Logan desired to speak. Gov. Boutwell has been assigned the General summing up of the case. Mr. Williams has an argument on the character of impeachable offences, and both the House and Senate desire to hear Mr. Wilson. It is supposed Mr. Stevens' health will not allow him to take any prominent part. On the side of consel, Mr. Groesbeck is very anxious to speak, as he has taken no part whatever up to the present time. When all others have finished Bingham will close.

The Constitutional Amendment.

California has rejected the Constitutional amendment. It has now been ratified by twenty-two States, two of which, Ohio and New Jersey, have reconsidered their action and, so far as lay in their power, withdrawn their ratification. Fourteen States have rejected the amendment, ten of them being those formaly in insurrection. One State, Iowa, remains to be heard from. Allowing that Ohio and New Jersey have the right to withdraw their ratification, it will require the vote of eight of the insurrectionary States—or seven should Iowa ratify—to adopt the amendment. By the terms of the Reconstruction laws, no one of the late rebel States can be admitted to representation in Congress until the amendment is ratified by it.

ANTIQUITIES OF ANNESLEY BAY.—Annessley Bay, in Abyssinia, was the point whence the Greeks, in the days of the Ptolemies, carried on trade with Axum, by way of Senafe and Halai, while the Portuguese and modern travelers have usually taken the route by Massowa. The ancient Greek city of Adulis, the emporium of this trade, was close to the shore, but the recession of the sea has left the ruins four miles back, among bushes. Broken pieces of fluted columns, capitals and other fragments of a very dark-colored volcanic stone are to be found. A very slight excavation brought to light the bronze balance and chain of a pair of scales.

INSTEAD of denying George Alfred T.'s, a reporter's ticket to the impeachment trial, in the abusive language and bad grammar attributed to him, President Wade actually obtained an extra seat for him, after all the seats had been obtained, and some four hundred had been disappointed.

The Pittsburgh Gazette.

A YOUNG LADY once asked a young man to write her a sermon. The young gentleman, well known in the most elegant circles of some our largest towns, Pittsburgh among the rest, on the next Sunday sent her the following poetical and rather unorthodox homily on a slightly perverted text:

I must obey thee, charming creature,
Although thy voice says "be a preacher,"
An occupation where I see
Such vast responsibility
That, truly, I should think as soon
Of peddling oysters in the moon:
And, though I cannot see the sense
In preaching to an audience
Who might excite an envious frown
From six gold angels melted down,
I must obey, not talk and idle—
Away goes Byron, here 's the Bible!
Yet, ere I turn its sacred page
Which counsels youth and comforts age,
I will remark, with due regard,
It seems to me a little hard
That we're forbid to worship even
The image of a thing of Heaven.
For how devout a saint I'd be
If you were but my deity!
And oh! how sweet the pious labor
Of saying prayers—to Fannie Sabor!

The text which greets my eyes is this:
"Salute the brethren with a kiss;"
And as no one's around to see,
Suppose that you begin with me.
Delay it not! for life is short;
Its transient joys must soon depart;
And can you hope to gain the rest
Within the mansion of the Blest,
If, still the ways of death preferred,
You hear but not receive The Word?
Inspired Truth! what could express
So sure a road to happiness,
Both in this world and in the next,
As found condensed within my text!
Then let us follow the advice
Which wafts us into Paradise
On wings of music, blended low
By Eros and Il Baccio!

Whatever else you may determine,
Don't be severe on my poor sermon:
But, 'ere your indignation burst,
Remember that it is my first;
And let its single virtue—brevity,
Preserve it from unholy levity.
Forget me not! Farewell, a sinner
Can't do without his Sunday dinner!

—The Chip—a way Indians are called a race of sculptors by an exchange.

—On the 31st of March 30,000 musk rat skins were shipped from St. Paul.

—St. Louis swallows half a million dollars worth of oysters every season.

—Erie has a suburb called Jerusalem, and it does'nt do much credit to the name.

—A union of the Episcopalians and dissenters in Ireland is spoken of as possible.

—The New Orleans Times has leaders from the pen of Judge Alexander Walker.

—$14,240 per day is the income of Louis Napoleon. Francis Joseph has $10,950 per day.

—Maggie Mitchell has a new play called "Lorle," which she is playing in Washington City.

—Forty-two negroes were baptized in the Ohio, at Henderson, Kentucky, a week before last Sunday.

—Quincy, Ill., is about one hundred miles further west than St. Louis, a fact not generally known.

—The Princess of Wales is anticipating another attack of rheumatism during the summer some time.

—A grand niece of Benedict Arnold is said to be employed at the Treasury Department in Washington.

—Blooming fruit trees and young grapes are spoken of as among the effects of the delicious weather in Kentucky.

—New Orleans was excited recently over the naked body of a man found in the City Park, partly eaten by buzzards.

—Putnam and Zanesville are trying on the consolidation question, and, as is usual in such cases, don't agree at all.

—England is to have a grand rose show shortly, at which the white and red roses will once more come in collision.

—Colorado wants 1,000 unmarried women. Massachusetts wants as many men in the same happy condition.

—A Louisville hotel advertised on Friday "The first clam soup of the season.' Made probably from Ohio River mussels.

—Phineas H. son of Brigham Young is dead. He was twenty years old and a rather good painter. He left several wives to monrn his early loss.

—Three children in Kansas City were poisoned by eating unknown greens, which they had gathered themselves, but which their mother had cooked for them.

—It has been estimated that Mr. Peabody and Miss Burdett Coutts have done more for the elevation of the degraded classes of society than Mrs. Fry and Mrs. Dix.

—A hog in Peoria ran into a house and stole a child from its' cradle, with which it ran off. When about to devour it, its mother came up and deprived it of its contemplated meal.

—Cincinnati has taken to praising St. Louis. The Chronicle calls St. Louisans "a large-hearted people." Perhaps the two cities are going to make common cause against Chicago.

—In Kentucky the demand for hemp is very brisk. If Governor Brownlow would do his duty by the Ku-Klux-Klan, the demand for the same article would be much greater in Tennessee.

—New Albany has a horrible ghost of a woman which haunts her former husband and his second wife. The story is vouched for by an advertisement of the house, in which the ghost seems to abide, for sale very cheap.

—The Christian Denomination is adding converts by the wholesale in Tennessee and Kentucky. The Methodists are driving them hard, however, and a bitter rivalry is said to exist between the preachers of the different sects.

—An English sporting man is going to open an agency in New York for the transacting of betting on the English races, and other English sports. It is a great pity that we cannot raise sufficient excitement in this country without importing a part of the Derby and other cockney amusements.

—A young lady in Connecticut recently had twenty-four wens cut out of her head in two sittings. She is recovering. We have known a curious young lady to get more whens? than that out of her head, besides a good many hows and whys and other ?s, and all in one sitting too.

—Mr. Burlingame gave a portrait of Washington to Len-ki-yu because that historian puffed the ancient George. A fine American watch was the reward of merit bestowed on Pere Gillie, a French missionary, who has always shown great kindness to any Americans who found their way to the Celestial Empire.

—Among other terrible stories of the frightful famine in ill fated Algiers, is one of a woman who killed her twelve year old daughter and cut her up; gave parts of her to her other children, and was in the act of salting down the remainder when the military authorities came in and interfered with her economical household preparations.

LITERARY ITEMS.

—Somebody says that Senator Wade will begin a suit for libel soon against the Cleveland Leader, on account of the manifest libel contained in a letter of George Alfred Townsend, to that paper, a few weeks ago.

—Competition for the best essay "On the best way of developing improved political and commercial relations between Great Britain and the United States" has been invited by the Golden Club of London, and a gold medal has been offered as a prize.

—Mr. Ruskin, who, not very long ago, spilt a little of his spleen across the Atlantic; a man whose language is no more beautiful than his brain is addled; a painter who does not know how to use the brush, thus assails his superior in every way, Gustave Dore, on account of his recent illustrations of Balzac:

"Nothing more inventively horrible has yet been produced by the evil art of man; nor can I conceive it possible to go beyond them in their specialities of corruption. There is not one which does not violate every instinct of decency and law of virtue or life written in the human soul."

The Beauties of Pittsburgh.

A Western editor who has been to Pittsburgh thus describes some of the peculiarities of that place:

Pittsburgh people never have fresh air, except when out of town. They live on coal smoke and floating cinders. We inhaled seven tons of coal the first hour we were there. The people breathe smoke, eat smoke, chew smoke and carry it in their pockets. It it now seventy-two years since Pittsburgh has been warmed or reached by the sun's rays. Once a steak of sunshine for several years condensing, undertook to penetrate the cloud of sm oke over the city, got lost, became smoked, and fell like a standing edition of the Black Crook!

The ladies use smoke and coal dust to protect their complexion. Little boys and girls stand on the corners with wet brooms and sponges to wash peoples faces for five cents. Everybody is of a color in Pittsburgh. At the postoffice window tha clerk distinguishes people by certain signs, it being impossible to see their faces for the layers of coal dust and smoke. We saw a little boy crying on the street because he had lost his father who was six feet ahead of him in the blackness.

Every one wears mourning in Pittsburgh. A barber once went there to color hair and whiskers. He mor'n busted in a week! Men kiss each other's wives in Pittsburgh, unable to tell which is their own only by the taste. Women send children on errands, first writing on their faces with a thumbnail or wet stick. People feel their way by door knobs, and read by raised type. A man once stood in his room with raised windows—changed his shirt nine times in four minutes, and only got a clean one on him when the window fell by a mere accident and kept the smoke out. Met a man with a cold who had been blowing his nose, and that organ looks like a burnt stump, on each side of which a woodchuck had been burrowing.

Bed clothes are unknown in Pittsburgh—leave the window open and sheets of smoke settle upon yon like a neswpaper from a machine press. Some few years since some snow fell into the city through the cloud of smoke—the smoke was not hurt, but the snow looked sick! Men carry lanterns to see to shake hands. When looking at a watch to see the hour, it is the fashion to light a match. They make black broadcloth by hanging a spider's web out till filled with smoke, and use hot coal dust for pepper. They roll the smoke, sweetened, into sticks and sell it for liquorice!

WANTED.
WANTED—AGENTS FOR THE OFFICIAL HISTORY OF THE WAR; Its Causes, Character, Conduct and Results. By Hon. ALEXANDER H. STEPHENS. A Book for all sections and parties.
This great work presents the only complete and impartial analysis of the Causes of the War yet published, and gives those interior lights and shadows of the great conflict only known to those high officers who watched the flood-tide of revolution from its fountain springs, and which were so accessible to Mr. Stephens from his position as second officer of the Confederacy.
The intense desire every where manifested to obtain this work, combined with an increased commission, makes it the best subscription book ever published.
One Agent in Easton, Pa., reports 72 subscribers in three days.
Another in Boston reports 103 subscribers in four days.

RIVER NEWS.

The river receded about eight inches during the twenty-four hours ending last evening, at which time there were five feet in the Monongahela, and five feet eight inches in the Allegheny. The weather yesterday was cloudy and raw, and towards evening there was every appearance of more snow. Oil City telegrams report thirty inches at that point.

There has not been a single transient arrival since Saturday, and the New York, for Cincinnati and Louisville, was the only departure. The McCullough cleared for Parkersburg as usual.

Mr. Wm. Wherry has succeeded Captain A. J. Bears as clerk of the Kate Robinson. Capt. Bears has been compelled to resign for the present, in consequence of a severe attack of rehumatism. The Kate is now ready to make engagements for Cincinnati and Louisville.

The Glasgow, Captain Geo. W. Johnston, is about ready to take her departure for the Upper Mississippi, and passengers and shippers should bear this in mind. The Glasgow will be followed by the Emma No. 3, Capt. Jas. H. Marratta.

The Armadillo, Capt. D. H. Hendrickson with Capt. D. A. Sweeney in the office, is filling up steadily for St. Louis and Missouri River, and will soon be ready to take her departure.

As will be seen by card, the Importer, Capt. Williams, Ida Rees, Capt. Albert, and Silver Lake, Capt. Todd, all of the "Rees Line," are announced for Fort Benton.

The ever reliable Ida Rees No. 2, Capt. Rees Rees, is the regular packet for Oil City to-day, leaving at 4 p. m.

The towboat Jacob Painter, on Saturday afternoon, snnk a barge boat laden with railroad iron at the foot of Varles ripple, in the channel of the Allegheny River. The iron was from the Brady's Bend Iron Works, and was being brought down by the Painter for the Rover to tow to Saint Louis. The Ida Rees No. 2, on her downward trip from Oil City, ran over the sunken barge and made a narrow escape from sinking. As it was, three or four of her timbers were broken, and she was otherwise slightly damaged. If the boat had had the load that was expected on the downward trip, she certainly would have sunk.

The Great Republic left St. Louis Thursday evening, with an immense trip, for New Orleans. It is reported that she was hard aground at Selma, thirty miles below St. Louis. As the Mississippi is receding, she may have trouble in getting off. From a gentleman direct from St. Louis, we learn that she has a large excursion party on board who were having a good time.

The Peninah and Amelia Poe were advertised to leave St. Louis for Fort Benton on Saturday, and the Sallie, (Capt. Stockdale's new boat) is announced to leave on Wednesday.

The Louisville Courier, of Saturday, says: A small, very small fleet of coal has arrived from Pittsburgh on the late high tide, including the Panther and Sampson, and we hear of but a few boats leaving on the present tide. The strike among the diggers is likely to make coal dear this summer. As the diggers are out, why not turn in a gang of niggers?

The New Orleans Picayune, of the 1st, has the following: Yesterday Messrs. Montgomery, Bros. & Co., sold at auction the favorite low pressure lake steamer Camelia, for $18,000 cash. Messrs. C. A. Whitney & Co. were the purchasers. The same firm also sold the towboat Dew Drop for $1,450. We did not learn who was the buyer.

AN ORDINANCE

PROVIDING FOR THE

Issue of Bonds Amounting to the sum of $250,000 00, of the Water Loan authorized by the Act approved February 8th, 1868.

SEC. 1. Be it ordained and enacted by the City of Pittsburgh, in Select and Common Councils assembled, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the City Controller be and is hereby authorized and directed to prepare and issue bonds in the name of the city of Pittsburgh, to the amount of two hundred and fifty thousand dollars, in accordance with the Act of Assembly approved the 8th day of February, A. D. 1868, entitled "An Act authorizing the City of Pittsburgh to borrow money."

SEC. 2. Said bonds shall be made payable to bearer, with semi-annual coupons attached; they shall be in sums of one hundred, two hundred, five hundred and one thousand dollars each, in such proportions as the Finance Committee may determine; they shall bear interest at the rate of seven per cent. per annum, and shall be payable in twenty-five years from the first day of April, A. D. 1868, which shall be the date of said bonds; the principal and interest shall be payable at the office of the City Treasurer, in the City of Pittsburgh. They shall be signed by the Mayor and countersigned by the City Controller, and shall be sealed by the Mayor with the corporate seal of said city.

SEC. 3. The Finance Committee shall advertise for proposals for the purchase of said bonds, and shall sell the same to the highest bidder, provided that none of said bonds shall be sold for less than par;

SEC. 4. The City Controller shall keep a correct and accurate account of all bonds which may be issued in pursuance of this ordinance, and of all monies received and paid for or on account thereof, and shall cancel and file all bonds and coupons which may at any time be paid by the City Treasurer.

SEC. 2. That any ordinance or part of ordinance conflicting with the passage of this ordinance at the present time, be and the same is hereby repealed so far as the same affects this ordinance.

Ordained and enacted into a law in Councils, this 26th day of March, A. D. 1868.

J. B. HARRIS' SAFETY FIRE JACKET,

Car Heater and Moderator,

For SMOKE AND HOT AIR FLUES, dispensing with the use of Stoves and Fires in or about the Passenger or Baggage Cars, with the attachment to graduate the heat to any temperature that may be desired without the possibility of firing the car or cars to which the Jacket may be attached.

Having obtained of the United States Letters Patent for a Safety Jacket which is warranted to resist the most intense heat that may be applied to it in the position and purpose for which it is intended. It is a sure protection from accidents by fire, originating from defective flues, or where iron pipes are used as conductors for smoke or heat. It is applicable to all piping that may become overheated, and is warranted to give perfect satisfaction where wood or other combustible material may be placed in close proximity thereto. I am now ready to apply my invention to stores, dwellings, factories, ships, steamboats, railroad cars, &c., wherever pipes as conductors are made dangerous by being overheated and security desired. I will sell, on application, rights to manufacture or to use the above invention; also, territorial rights, to such as may wish to engage in selling privileges, either by State or county.

GOLD closed in New York yesterday at 137⅞.

IN Michigan the election yesterday resulted in the defeat of the new Constitution and success of the Prohibition measure.

THE election in Connecticut, yesterday, was closely contested, and, judging from returns received, it is probable it resulted in the election of ENGLISH, Democrat, for Governor, by a decreased majority. In 1867 the whole vote cast in that State for Governor was 94,154; Democratic majority 976. We have nothing on which to estimate the political complexion of the Legislature. Last year the Republicans had a majority of eleven on a joint ballot.

Latest dispatches state the Legislature will be Republican, with a majority of over twenty on joint ballot.

THE ENGLISH COMMONS, on Friday night, gave a decisive majority of sixty against Ministers, upon the motion to postpone the consideration of Mr. GLADSTONE'S resolutions on Irish Church Reform to the next session. Mr. D'ISRAELI has, therefore, under the Parliamentary precedents, only the alternatives of resigning his office or of dissolving Parliament and going to the people under a new election. This news came to us by the western mail of last night, having been telegraphed west from New York at a very late hour on Saturday morning. Why this important intelligence was not telegraphed to the Pittsburgh press at all, either for their Saturday or Monday morning issues, is a matter which the associated journals of this city feel an interest in seeing explained.

CONFIRMATORY of our statement that, upon Vice President JOHNSON'S accession to the Chief Magistracy, the resignations of Mr. LINCOLN'S Secretaries were tendered to him, and that he declined to receive them, expressly retaining each and all of those officers in his Cabinet, we find that the Managers now present, as a part of the evidence to sustain Impeachment, the official bulletin from the War Department, dated April 15, 1865, in which Secretary STANTON announced the new President's accession to office, and that at a Cabinet meeting held that day, among other things, occurred the following:

"The President formally announced that he desired to retain the present Secretaries of Departments as his Cabinet, and that they would go on and discharge their respective duties in the same manner as before the deplorable event that had changed the head of the Government."

THE SENATE declines to permit the case against Mr. JOHNSON, as made in the Articles, to be delayed by any extension of the line of proof. But within the charges as laid in those Articles, the Managers find that their evidence is uniformly admitted, unless for valid legal objections plainly established. Many of the Republican Senators are lawyers of great ability and eminent professional attainments, and they will insist that this State trial, more important in its nature and results than ever before known in the history of nations, shall be as conspicuous for its faithful vindication of all the principles of the law, as for its extraordinary political influence, in demonstrating the unassailable strength of our Republican institutions. Consequently, in nearly, if not quite, all of those divisions of the Senate upon interlocutory questions, where by the aid of Republican voters, the decisions have been adverse to the claims of the Managers, these dissenting Senators have been the lawyers of whom we speak. Not a man of them doubts the guilt of the accused, upon the charges and proof under the Articles. To enlarge the case is unwise, unnecessary and indeed unjustifiable; it is ample as it stands, and so the result will show.

IT IS but simple justice to award to the management of the Western Union Telegraph line, a hearty acknowledgment of the usual promptitude and accuracy of the system under which they forward the news reports for the Associated Press. With a net-work of lines radiating to every part of the Union, and reaching not only every important point, but almost every inhabited place in thirty-seven States, they possess, it is true, so nearly a monopoly of that peculiar species of communication, that we should naturally expect to see their administration corrupted into a series of selfish and unscrupulous abuses of their wonderful opportunities. But the fact, on the contrary, is that, in spite of a power almost absolute, of a monopoly so gigantic that it could hardly fail to tempt human nature to any extent of invasion upon the public rights,—the Western Union comes down to, this hour, unimpeached for the integrity of its management, unassailed and unsuspected of the faintest approach of any abuse of its unprecedented privileges. It is practically a monopoly, and we hate monopolies on principle, and, from the same motive, we should be glad to see that or any other monopoly exposed to an active and fair competition. The public would profit pecuniarily, but could be benefited in no other way. Beyond that, there can be no great improvement on the present system.

LIBERALISM IN GREAT BRITAIN.

In no large country in Europe has the popular element been so potential in governmental affairs, during the last two hundred years, as in Great Britain. Not that all classes of the population of that country have at any point, during that long period, participated in political power. But the tendency has constantly been to increased liberality. Of course, the privileged orders have often resisted, as best they could, encroachments upon their prerogatives. They have appealed to hereditary right, to the assumed incompetency of other classes to exercise steadily and beneficently any important share in governmental administration, have invented sophistical ethnologic theories to exclude what they call the lower orders from dividing influence with them, have summoned the vilest social prejudices to their aid, and have invoked those bitterest of all jealousies and hatreds which grow out of diversities of religious faiths. All this they have done without permanent effect. The great movement has gone on, from year to year, the leaders perceiving the end with increasing distinctness and advancing their demands as the means of accomplishment more certainly came within their grasp.

All the while, it has been the boast of the aristocracy that Great Britain enjoyed a larger degree of liberty, and on a more enduring basis, than any other nation in Europe. Nor was this an idle boast. It accorded with the literal fact. Great Britain, while remaining in form a monarchy, had in fact become an oligarchy. It must be confessed, moreover, that, while the nobility wrenched absolute authority from the Crown, they did not always retain a monopoly of it in their own hands. Co-operating with the Commons, frequently with the most enlightened views, and with a spirit of commendable liberality, they not only consented to a division of the political authority, but advocated such a division as of the highest consequence to all classes in the realm. But they have steadily maintained that a certain degree of intelligence, and the possession of a definite amount of property, should be conditions precedent to the exercise of the elective franchise. Naturally enough, they have differed among themselves, and from other orders when they have been called upon to define the precise points in the scale of intelligence and property at which the qualification should be fixed.

The leaders of the commonalty, have carried their boast further, and maintained that Great Britain was not only better fitted for self-government than any other nation in Europe, but was so abundantly fitted therefor, that the actual Government ought to be established on a truly popular basis. Experience has taught them that forms are of comparatively little consequence, and that if the nobility can rule in the name of the Crown, the people can do so as well without disturbing venerable traditions which have really lost there significance, or shocking prejudices which have survived the condition of society which called them into existence.

Of late the nobility equally with the commonalty have been seized with the conviction that a broader foundation of political authority than that which has heretofore existed, must be laid, and that right speedily. This conviction is not shared to the full extent, if at all, by the whole of that order, but the larger part of them feel the impulse, and are marking out their course for the future in obedience to it. Narrow minded people may affirm that this is only because they foresaw the coming discomfiture, and chose to retain what power they could, under the circumstances, rather than run the almost certain risk of losing it altogether. But to reach this conclusion it is needful to blot out or discard the teachings of British history, so as to get rid of those memorable epochs in which the nobility periled all they held most dear by resisting the throne in defence of the rights of the people. While it may be conceded that the nobility are not indifferent to the rights of their order, or to other personal advantages, it must be confessed that they are actuated, in many particulars, by a generous patriotism. If they do not divest themselves so entirely of habits arising out of birth, education, interest or ambition, as to comprehend fully the impulses of the trading and producing classes, they do desire to do the best for England that can be done under their view of the case.

This explains sufficiently, we think, why the Tory party recently promised concessions as to the elective franchise which surpassed those offered by the Liberals themselves. The latter were in doubt as to how far to go, and hence would not venture so far as to expose themselves to the certainty of defeat. They misjudged how far the discussions of the last few years had carried the Tories from their moorings. While they thus halted, the Tories surprised them by striking out considerably in advance. It would be easy to say that this movement was simulated and unreal; a promise, to delude expectation but not intended for fulfillment. But none of the later accounts authorize this solution. When the Tories elevated to the Premiership the son of a Jew, himself a plebian, they gave token that they had broken with the past and were reaching out their hands to the future.

We infer, therefore, that it is only a question of time when the whole body of the British people shall be admitted, and on equal terms, to the right of voting. The event is sure to come. The revolution is not the less certain because gradual. It will carry with it, moreover, many collateral changes, as in provisions for popular education and for public worship.

A DILEMMA.

An awkward discovery embarrasses the counsel for Mr. JOHNSON. A protracted delay in the Impeachment proceedings would be of decided advantage to the interests of their client, and their tactics have, it is supposed, been hitherto directed to the securing of that end. But the idea has suddenly occurred to them that there has recently been held an election in Arkansas, resulting probably in the reconstruction of the State, which will, at a very early day, present two Senators for admission at the National Capitol. The counsel for the defense, therefore, must consider the risk of two more Republican Senators being present to vote on the ultimate questions, or must abandon their present policy and unite cordially with the Managers in bringing the trial to an early conclusion. Of course the right of Senators to vote cannot be denied them. The Arkansas Senators, if admitted, are at once entitled to pronounce upon any questions before the body of which they become members. They will as thoroughly understand the case, its testimony and the arguments, as will many of the Senators who have not sat through the trial. The Globe reports are before them, as well as before HARLAN, YATES and SAULSBURY who have been absent nearly all the time. As well deny the right of these three Senators to vote, as to those from Arkansas who have at least equal facilities for making up a careful judgment, and who must, before voting, take the same judicial oath. We may, therefore, count upon the hearty co-operation of Messrs. STANBERY and EVARTS, with the Managers, in bringing this great trial to the earliest possible close.

IN the month of March, many of our citizens who were constrained to undergo the periodical infliction of moving, were inclined to put off hiring new quarters until the last moment, hoping there would prove to be an overstock of houses, and that rents would be abated. Considering that four thousand buildings have been erected in this city and the adjacent municipalities each year for several years past, this expectation was not unnatural. There was reason to suppose that, in view of the comparative stagnation of manufactures, building had been pushed beyond the actual demand. But such is demonstrated not to be the fact. Moving day has come and gone, aud very few or no tenements remain untaken. A fortnight hence, it is safe to predict, it will be as near impossible to obtain a desirable dwelling as at any former period.

Meanwhile building has again commenced; not, indeed, on as large a scale as last year or the year before, but in a way to show that before fall the new structures will be completed, not by hundreds but by thousands. It is worthy of notice that a more considerable proportion of the new buildings are of superior quality than in former days. Not a few of them will compare advantageously with those erected in any other town in the United States.

WE find the very "cool" paragraph annexed in the Tioga Agitator:

We see that Judge Woodward is alluded to as "Bombastes Furioso." We should as soon allude to the Polar Sea as a tropical expanse. The man has no more heat in his blood than a Saurian. The only impulse he ever had is to tie an extra knot in his purse-strings. Whenever he enters a room the mercury falls to zero, house plants freeze, and the servant piles on wood or coal.

LETTER FROM HARRISBURG.

[Special Correspondence Pittsburgh Gazette.]

HARRISBURG, April 4, 1868.

The Appropriation bill was reconsidered on Thursday, and recommitted to the Finance Commitee. In the evening the bill was reported back, with all the local charities struck out, the School appropriation reduced to $400,000 and Orphans' school to $400,000. This brought the appropriations in the aggregate down to $3,900,000, of which $1,800,000 was for interest on the State debt. The State Treasurer, in his report at the beginning of the session, estimated the appropriations at $3,800,000; so that the bill, as it stands, is within $100,000 of the estimate. The House appointed a Committee of Conference, consisting of Messrs. Mann, Nicholson and Josephs, and the Senate appointed Messrs. Connell, Errett and Randall. The Committee will not probably meet before Tuesday, and its principal difficulty will be with the salaries of the State officers and subordinates.

The House to-day adopted the Senate resolution to adjourn on Tuesday, the 14th. The Registry Law, the Free Railroad Law and the Appropriation bill being all out of danger, the main work yet to be done consists of private bills.

The Registry Law passed the House just as it passed the Senate, except that a new bill was added, applying exclusively to Philadelphia, so we have two Registry laws in one—one for Philadelphia and one for the State at large. The Philadelphia law was drawn up by our active friends in that city, and they feel sure it will cut off over five thousand fraudulent votes.

This is a very important law, and I regret that I cannot send you a complete copy, but I send a copy of that part applying to the State outside of Philadelphia. The Legislature will probably order it to be published in pamphlet form and codified with the other election laws which it leaves in force.

The free railroad law, as it has now gone to the Governor, is the same as the one you published lately, except that the subscription is fixed at $9,000 per mile, and that the term of two years, instead of one, is allowed in which to commence work on a road. The sixth section of the old bill was struck out and a new one inserted, allowing the companies under this law to increase their capital stock until it reaches $60,000 per mile. It cannot exceed that amount.

A warm debate sprung up in the Senate, on Friday, on a bill to require the officers of elections to keep a record of all the naturalization papers offered by voters, noting when, where, by what court, and to whom issued. The Democrats resisted it with all their might, and demonstrated, by their opposition, there is nothing they fear so much as a wholesome check upon naturalization papers. Their opposition, too, to the Registry law proves them equally hostile to an honest registration of voters. In the House they fillibustered for a whole day to prevent its passage, striving in the meantime, at every opportunity, to get an early day fixed for final adjournment, so that they might, by dilatory motions, fight the bill off. When it came back, finally, to the Senate, with the House amendments, the same effort was made, but in their eagerness to obstruct a concurrence in the amendments they fortunately placed themselves in a position where a call for the previous question cut off all chance of fillibustering, and that game was then effectually stopped.

The report of the Contested Election Committee was read in the Senate on Friday, awarding the seat to the Republican contestant, Col. Robinson, and he was immediately sworn in.

There were some very singular things connected with this case. The district elects two Senators, and extends from the top of the Allegheny mountain, at Gallitzin, to the Susquehanna, within seven miles of Harrisburg. It is a Republican district, on a fair vote, but tolerably close, and was last represented by L. W. Hall and Kirk Haines, Republicans. Last fall the Republicans nominated Mr. M'Vitty, of Huntingdon, and Col. Robinson, of Juniata, and the Democrats nominated Mr. McIntyre of Perry, and Mr. Shugert, of Center. McIntyre was declared elected by about 200 majority, and Shugert by 22, over Robinson. The Conferees who nominated M'Vitty and Robinson passed a resolution in favor of a Free Railroad Law, and this, it is supposed, turned the whole force of the Pennsylvania road, (which traverses the entire district,) against them, and so turned a Republican into a Democratic district.

Upon the investigation which has been instituted into the legality of Shugert's election, the following developments have taken place:

1. That in one district in Clearfield county over sixty votes were cast by railroad laborers upon forged naturalization papers

2. That these forged naturalization papers were issued in blank, in Luzerne county, a cast-off seal of the Court of Common Pleas of that county being used to give them the semblance of being genuine, and that they were issued there by thousands to whoever would vote the democratic ticket.

3. That when the Senate Committee visited Luzerne county to search the records for the names of those voters in Clearfield county who presented naturalization papers bearing the seal of Luzerne county, one of the naturalization dockets could not be found, although it had been in the office only the day before.

4. That in Rush township, in one of the counties of the contested district, no order or law was observed in conducting the election, and that, on opening the ballot box, in the Senate Committee room, not a ballot was found in it—nothing but old papers and tally lists.

5. That the Committee, after searching Clearfield county over, was able to find but one of the Irishmen who voted on the forged papers. That one frankly confessed he had been but ten months in the country, that he "couldn't rade any more than a baste," and that he voted the ticket that was given him; and this man, upon returning to his home in Clearfield county, was waylaid and cruelly murdered.

6. That O'Meara, the railroad boss who mustered his hands to vote the Democratic ticket upon forged papers, was paid $500 by the Catholic priest to go to Canada and stay there until the investigation by the Senate Committee was over; and that having gone there, according to agreement, was brought back by the Sergeant-at-Arms.

7. That Robinson was fairly elected by about 100 majority, and that a Democrat has been holding a seat all winter into which he was forced by Democratic fraud and chicanery. And finally, and worst of all, it is now currently reported—

8. That despairing of saving the sitting member by the evidence, bribes were offered for a report in his favor. I have no means of verifying this rumor, but I know that it is in circulation. I would fain hope there is no truth in it; and as the Committee made a report, five to two, on the side of the right and supported by the evidence, we may well afford to forget that such rumors ever had an existence.

Much credit is due to John Cessna, of Bedford, and H. Beecher Swope, of Clearfield, for the masterly manner in which they have conducted this case. It is to their indefatigable energy and zeal, to the great care with which they prepared their case, to the talent and ability they displayed in meeting all the subterfuges of their opponents, and to the thorough manner in which the evidence was hunted up, that we owe this triumph of the right and the defeat of all Democratic expectations of getting possession of the Senate.

ALLEGHENY.

Dr. Page's Reply to Bishop Hopkins' Letter, and his Comments Thereon.

MESSRS. EDITORS GAZETTE:—In my reply to Bishop Hopkins' letter, as published in one of your last week's issues, I said that it gave me great pleasure to be able to bear my testimony to the perfect accuracy of his statement in regard to the circumstances attendant upon the election of Bishop H. U. Onderdonk. Remarkable as it was, it is not the less true that by one of the parties to that memorable contest, he was urged to vote for himself, the ground being taken that there were then in the house of Bishops two Bishops who had been elected by their own votes; in the then distracted state of the diocese no man could censure him, if he followed the same course for the peace of the ch urch, etc.

Considering the alleged precedent, however, as a most dangerous example, he declined to follow it, and there the history of the case may justly be challenged as being, perhaps, without a parallel. Bishop Hopkins, in fact, was preferred by both sides—the candidate actually chosen by the High churchmen in caucus, and actually chosen by the same churchmen in Convention, while he voted for another person, and that other was elected!

And now Messrs. Editors, I have a word to say about the Bishop's sensitive disclaimer of Low Churchmanship. I am one of those who never regarded the Bishop as a safe leader of public opinion. He was too fond of paradoxes to be entitled to be accepted as such. And yet as there are many in the church who look up to him as a leader, and who indeed specially requested of him an expression of his opinion, concerning certain momentous issues of the day, I would hereby say to them, despite of the efforts of the Church, I am not to make the contrary appear that Bishop Hopkins most clearly and unequivocally accepted the maxim of ecclesiastical antiquity, that the ministry was not of the essence, but of the order of the Church; that the Priesthood resided essentially in all Christian people, and that the only difference between the clergy and the laity consists in this: That the former are taken out of the body of the people and set apart for the work of the ministry, according to a certain order instituted by the Apostles, and by them transmitted to their successors in the ages all along. And hence Bishop Hopkins regarded the various bodies of Christian people as defective indeed, but true branches of the Church of Christ, and never insulted them by calling their churches meeting houses or houses of worship. When will this mawkish ecclesiasticism cease to disfigure and debase the addresses of some of our Bishops? When will churchmen abandon the utterly untenable position that the whole Church of Scotland, from the time of John Knox downward, were utterly without sacraments, and unceremoniously consigned to the unsigned, unsealed and unpledged mercies of the Churches great Head "Jadœus Appella credat, non ego."

Bishop Hopkins shrank frem being identified with the Low Church party, simply because of the laxity of their notions as to the rubrical provisions of the Liturgy, and the efficacy of the sacraments. And in this respect, as well as all others, was in precise agreement with the venerable White, who is well known to have exclaimed in view of the latitudinarian policy of the party opposed to him, in the memorable contest which resulted in the election of H. U. Onderdonk, "Let me not see the death of the child".

It has been affirmed that of late years Bishop Hopkins' views underwent a change. But that this was not so, is evident from the fact that he has never retracted them, but that one and the same doctrine runs through his "Lectures on the Creed," "the novelties that disturb our peace," and "the end of controversy controverted."

And as for his work on Ritualism moreover, the only posititon he takes (and it is a perfectly tenable one) is that provision should be made in worship for aesthetic tastes, and every concession made to men of finely constructed minds which were consistent with an unquestionable fidelity to the principles of the Anglican Reformation.

On the whole, with the exception of his work on slavery, the Bishop's record is a good one, and that should be suffered quietly to fall into oblivion, or remembered only as a melancholy instance of the fallibility of human judgment, and of the warping influence of the love of paradox.

Very respectfully and truly yours,
DAVID COOK PAGE,
158 Robinson street, Allegheny City.

THE COURTS.

United States District Court—Judge McCandless.

In the bankruptcy branch petitions for final discharge were filed by John C. Moorhead, Ligonier, Westmoreland county, Reuben O. Lurch, Lewisburg, Union county and Francis Zellers, Union county. The usual orders were made.

The only petition for adjudication in bankruptcy filed yesterday was that of Charles E. Sackett, of Blair county.

Common Pleas—Judge Stowe.

On the opening of the Court the case of J. L. L. Knox vs. Dr. J. Duncan was called up. The jury was subsequently withdrawn, and the case continued.

The case of Martha B. Scott vs. Theodore Noble, impleaded with Grafton and Noble, was next taken up. This was an action to recover on a judgment for six thousand three hundred and sixty-three dollars and seventy-six cents, in the Supreme Judicial Court of Massachusetts. The jury found for the plaintiff in the sum of $13,967.55. A motion for a new trial was made by defendant's counsel.

There being no other case ready for trial Court adjourned.

Quarter Sessions—Judge Mellon.

The first case taken up yesterday was that of Abel Cohen, indicted for fraudulently secreting and removing property. The defendant was a member of the firm of Goldsenen, Cohen, & Co., of No. 60 Market street, and it was alleged that he removed the goods in the store room to various places, and secreted them, for the purpose of defrauding Wm. Prais, a resident of New York, to whom the firm was indebted. When the case was called up, Major A. M. Brown, counsel for defendant, moved the Court to quash the indictment on the ground that no indictable offense was set forth; that the indictment was uncertain, vague and insufficient; that no particular property was described or set forth in the indictment. The Court overruled the motion, but directed that the reasons be filed. The case then proceeded. On trial.

We have received from our enterprising neighbor, the Post, a huge poster in the shape of a greenback, which proclaims its Pendletonian proclivities and puts forth its own merits as the leading Democratic journal in this section of the State. The "greenback," as a specimen of fine printing from the Post job office, is good, but we venture to predict that our neighbors will repudiate or deny its issue to promote circulation, a few years hence.

We have received from Kay & Co., Wood street, and Gildenfenney, a copy of "Kansas and the Country Beyond," from the pen of Josiah Copley, Esq., of this city. We have already noticed the book at some length and are glad that it has been introduced for sale by those interprising houses. It will meet with large sale.

Illegal Liquor Selling.—John Schusler yesterday made information before Alderman Taylor, charging Charles Neff a resident of East Liberty, with a violation of the liquor law, alleging that he sells liquor without license, and to habitual drunkards. Neff was arrested and held for a hearing.

In Good Hands.

Yesterday Mrs. McConnell called at the Mayor's office and preferred a charge of incorrigibility against her son, Frank, a wayward youth of thirteen years. A warrant was issued and placed in the hands of officer McCready, who went to Noblestown and arrested the boy and brought him to the city. It so happened that when he was brought into the Mayor's office a prominent member of the bar was present, who, being favorably impressed with the boy's appearance, made inquiry concerning him, and on learning the cause of his arrest and detention, he directed the officers to carry the proceedings no further, but to take the boy to a hotel and have him provided for, and he would pay the costs of the proceedings, and any necessary bill, in addition to which he would take charge of the boy and educate him. The little fellow appeared to be well pleased with his new protector.

Death of an Excellent Woman.

Seldom have we recorded the death of a friend with more painful feelings than that of Mrs. Mary M., wife of Joseph Shallenberger, Esq., who died last evening at her husband's residenee on River avenue, near Anderson street, Allegheny city. For some time she has been in rather delicate health, but still active in home duties, until within a brief time she suddenly was stricken down and finally was called to the better land. For years she had been an exemplary christian, and noted for her kind, loving nature, making her the joy of her household, as well as a great favorite among a large circle of friends. She will be greatly missed at the Liberty street M. E. Church, where she long held membership.

Body Found.—Yesterday evening about five o'clock Lieut. McIlvain found, near the corner of Fulton and Cliff streets, a segar box containing the body of a female child. In the absence of Coroner Clawson Alderman Butler held an inquest on the body. Dr. McNary was called upon and examined the body and stated to the jury that in his opinion the child came to its death by violence. The jury found that "it came to its death from violence at the hands of some person or persons unknown."

Strike Ended.—The Cleveland Herald says: On Saturday morning a few of the men out of employment met at National Hall, but there were so few of them that no business of importance was transacted. The strike, therefore, it may be said, is finished and almost the whole number of men are at work at wages agreed upon by the Railroad Companies.

General Butler.

The man who seized the Relay House, crept like a panther and at a spring into Baltimore, sent a rebel to the gallows in New Orleans, sent a rebel woman to a torrid island, held the trenches before Richmond, flung a couple of iron mines into Fort Fisher: made New York shudder, and himself one of the most debatable names in our military history, stood on Monday, without uniform, before the Court of Impeachment, to open the case of the People agaist the President.

A singular presence was his, short, broad-shouldered, short-legged, fat, without much neck, but with a good many flaps around the throat, standing as if a trifle bow-legged and with no suggestion of a military habit and life, rather of sedentary occupations which had encouraged the sagacities and resentments—say, indeed, a politician! A curious natural crescent of a forehead, sweeping round from ear to ear, was developed by baldness into a great cranium of a shining pink color, in which the folds of the brain revealed themselves with a naked, muscular appeaance. Too naked, indeed, was the man's head, to give the lookers-on in the galleries a comfortable feeling. But for the red tint of his baldness he looked cold.—G. A. T., Cleveland Leader.

GOOD HEALTH

IS THE GREATEST OF ALL BLESSINGS,

And to preserve it is the privilege and duty of all.

DR. SARGENT'S

ANTI-DYSPEPTIC AND LIVER PILLS

Are the great sovereign, speedy and sure cure of the age, for Dyspepsia, either in its mildest or worst stages, and hundreds who have long suffered under the inflictions of this most annoying and dangerous disease, have by the use of this invaluable medicine been restored to health and the enjoyment of life.

Is your Liver in a torpid condition of inaction, thereby deranging the whole system?

DR. SARGENT'S LIVER PILLS

Will speedily remove the secretions and restore it to a healthy state.

Are you troubled with loss of appetite, foul stomach, eructations of wind, sick headache and general derangement of the digestive organs?

DR. SARGENT'S LIVER PILLS

Are a sure, safe and permanent remedy, and by their mild but certain action will cleanse, renovate and reinvigorate the system.

DR. SARGENT'S LIVER PILLS stand high as one of the standard medicines of the age. For the cure of all diseases arising from a disordered state of the liver, as can be attested by the certificates of large numbers of our citizens who have been benefited and cured by their use.

These Pills can be obtained, either Plain or Sugar Coated, from all Druggists in the country.

UNRIVALLED.

Nothing that has ever been known or heard of a tonic adds so much to the resistant power of the human system, under circumstances unfavorable to health, as HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. If you would escape the intermittent fevers, fits of indigestion, bilious attacks and bowel complaints, of which cold and damp are the frequent causes, use the BITTERS as a PROTECTIVE MEDICINE. This is the wisest course; but if already an invalid, try the preparation as a RESTORATIVE. In either case full reliance may be placed upon its efficacy.

There is no mystery about the causes of its success. It is the only stomachic and alterative in which are combined the grand requisites of a mild, pure and unvitiated vegetable stimulant, with the finest selection of tonic, anti-bilious, anti-scorbutic, aperient and depurative herbs, plants, roots and barks that have ever been intermixed in a medicinal preparation.

The Bitters have this distinctive quality, which is not shared, it is believed, by any tonic, tincture or extract in the world. It does not excite the pulse, though it infuses a wonderful degree of vigor into the nervous system, and strengthens and sustains the whole physical organization.

California and Australia have emphatically endorsed it as the MINER'S MEDICINE par excellence, and in Spanish America and all the tropical climate, it is considered the only reliable antidote to epidemic fevers.

The already immense and still increasing consumption of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS, backed by many of the most influential physicians throughout the country, should convince the most skeptical that it is worthy the confidence and approbation of all.

ANOTHER CURE OF DEAFNESS.

I lost my hearing during the last year. Part of the time I was totally deaf. In April of this year I was induced, from an advertisement, to make application to DR. KEYSER, 130 Penn street, Pittsburgh. After having tried various medicines from doctors, without any benefit, I have been under Dr. Keyser's treatment now for nearly two months, and am entirely restored to my hearing, so that I can hear a pin drop.

ANOTHER CURE

A man called to-day at Dr. Keyser's office to inform him of a great cure made by his LUNG CURE, or PULMONARY RESTORATIVE. Ilst these cures are made with the Doctor's preparations, he desires it to be distinctly understood that most of his great cures are made in accordance with the established laws that govern the science of medicine, in which he has been engaged for the past twenty-five years. Last week he was also in receipt of a letter from a clergyman in the State of Ohio, detailing another most wonderful cure.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

FOUR EDITIONS
IN TWO WEEKS!
LITTLE, BROWN & CO.,
110 Washington St., Boston,
Have just published a FOURTH EDITION of
THE SPIRIT OF SEVENTY-SIX,
OR,
THE COMING WOMAN.
A PROPHETIC DRAMA.
Cloth, $1.00. Paper, 75 cents. Fine paper, tinted, $1.75.
FOR SALE BY ALL BOOKSELLERS.
☞ Sent by mail on receipt of price.

"The play hinges upon the absurdities of a female Assessor, a female Judge of the Supreme Court, and a female politician, and the ludicrous aspects of a state of society in which women make proposals of marriage to men, and every bachelor is exposed to two hundred thousand offers, more or less. These ideas are carried out with great humor. The play has caused a marked sensation in Boston, where it has been acted by some of the elite for the benefit of the Cretans."—N. Y. Nation.

"The Spirit of '75—not 1776, but 1876—is the name of a spirited parlor drama which has given lively pleasure to select social circles in Boston. It gives a somewhat extravagant, and therefore amus- ingly, emphatic picture of what might be the condi- tion of society and the facts of daily life, if the ex- treme aspirations of the Woman's Rights party were practically fulfilled. Very witty is the dialogue, very comic are the situations, very incongruous the relative positions."—N. Y. Evening Post.

"A delicious morceau, made a capital success by the delicate humor, the many sharp hits and the amusing situations which it introduces."—Boston Post.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, MONDAY, April 6, 1868.

The gold market was rather weak to-day, contrary to all expectations, but the advance in cotton will increase the amount of foreign bills on the market and keep it easy.

Government bonds advanced sharply to-day and closed strong at an advance of ¾ per cent.; the 5-20s of 1862 are one per cent. higher than last Friday. Five-twenties of 1865 have advanced 1¼ per cent., and Ten-Forties are firm at 100¼.

The stock market is more active, without any considerable advance. Fort Wayne, Cleveland and the Western shares are strong, but the eastern clique stocks are off a little. Money very active here, but less stringent than last week.

Closing quotations as received by Ph. R Mertz, were as follows:

Gold, 138⅞; 1881 bonds, 111¼; 1862 5-20s, 110¼; 1864 do, 108¼; 1865 do, 108⅝; Consols, 107¼; 10-40s, 100⅛; 7-30s, 106½.

The question of who shall stand the loss on cargoes of wheat when they fall short of the amount called for by the bills of lading has for some time agitated the grain merchants and vessel owners of Chicago and the lakes. A case in point has just been decided by the Supreme Court of Oswego, New York. A cargo of wheat was shipped from Chicago and consigned to the defendant at Oswego. On the arrival of the vessel at that place, the cargo fell short about 80 bushels from the amount called for in the bills of lading. The defendant refused payment of the freight unless the plaintiffs would pay for the shortage, which they refused to do. The defendant was accordingly sued by the plaintiffs, and the Court gave a decision in their favor.

—The directors of the Michigan Southern road will meet April 28, when the dividend question will be settled. It is stated "unofficially." that a stock dividend will be made, and a semi-annual cash dividend be announced. The expectations of the company for the current fiscal year were $2,000,000, net, or 10 per cent. upon its entire cost.

ALLEGHENY CATTLE MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBUGH GAZETTE, TUESDAY, April 6, 1868.

CATTLE.

There was a very fair supply of cattle on sale to-day, but with a good retail demand and some little inquiry for shipment, the market was steady and prices, especially for prime fat cattle, were fully sustained. The supply of stock cattle was considerably larger than for several weeks past, and for this particular description the market was a little dull, and at about 10:30 a. m., when we left the yards, it looked as if there would be some left over unsold. Good to prime butchers cattle sold with but little difficulty, and that, too, at full prices, and there were but very few, if any, of this kind of stock left unsold; and as we have already intimated, there were but few of any kind left over. It is said that all the cattle in market this week were from Chicago, with the exception of two car loads. It looks a little strange to see Allegheny drovers traveling all the way through the great State of Ohio and a portion of Indiana to buy cattle; one would think that Ohio could furnish all the cattle we want, but it seems that such is not the case, otherwise our dealers would not go to Chicago. We quote the following sales:

Dolan & Co. wholesaled 20 head good Illinois steers to N. Carr at 7½. Shipped 32 head to Baltimore.

Smith & Talmage retailed 20 head of common to prime Ohio stock at 6¼ to 9¼.

L. Shamberg reports having sold 6 head of extra at 9¼ to 9¾.

N. Carr retailed 20 head of prime Illinois steers at 7½ to 8½.

M. Verner wholesaled 32 head of good Chicago steers to Myers & Needy at 8¼—cash; retailed 46 head at 7¾ to 9.

Crum & Kerwin—a strong team—have gone into the bull business; they report having sold 18 head at 3½ to 6¼. Crum does the buying and Kerwin the selling.

Greenwald & Kahn retailed 54 head from Chicago at 7½ to 9½.

Hazlewood & Blackstock retailed 50 head from Chicago at 8¼ to 9¼.

Shamberg & Hartman, 40 head from Chicago at 7½ to 9¼.

Marks & Traurman, 150 head from Chicago; quoted at 6¾ to 9¼.

Holmes, Lafferty & Glass had in all 120 head; sold 30 head at 7¼ to 9; balance were stockers, and although they were not all sold when we left the yards, it was supposed that they would average 6½.

Myers & Needy report 68 head of fat cattle at 8,50 to 9,65; 35 head of stockers unsold. Shipped five car loads to Baltimore.

L. Rothchils retailed 27 head from Chicago at 7,90 to 9,12.

Haas & Kraus, 60 head from Chicago at 6½ to 9¼.

Stakely & Bro. sold 11 head cows and bulls at 5.

E. Katz reports having sold 18 head of scalawag bulls at 4 to 6.

SHEEP

Were in pretty good supply to-day, and the market was a little dull, though all the best Sheep were picked up at full prices. The offerings were mainly common in quality, as well as in condition, and while this particular grade ruled dull, good fat Sheep, as we have already intimated, sold readily at full prices, ranging from 7¼ to 8¼, gross. The following sales were reported:

Sargeant wholesaled 55 head, averaging about 79 lbs, to Davis, at 6½.

Jacob Shamberg sold 20 head of prime fat Sheep from Washington county to "Boss" Ackley & Harrison, (butchers) at 8¼, and the same parties bought 20 head from same county, from J. Neely, at 7¼.

Rynn & Co. report having retailed 55 head, at an average of 7.

G. & W. Garvin report having sold 85 head at 5 to 7½.

Dent had about 200 head on sale, but when we left the yards he had not sold; he asked 7¼.

Stakely & Bro. sold 73 head, at prices ranging from $2 to $5 per head.

HOGS.

The retail demand for Hogs continues light; but with limited arrivals and a very small supply, prices are well maintained, ranging from 9 to 11c, grosa, for light to prime heavy averages.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, MONDAY, April 6, 1868.

The general markets are quiet and devoid of any new characteristics worthy of special notice. There is a continued fair demand for most of the leading articles, and prices, generally, are without any quotable change.

APPLES—Green Apples are scarce, and in steady local demand, and we can report regular sales in store at $4 to $6 per bbl, as to quality.

POTATOES—Sales of Peach Blows at $3,25 to $3,50, and Buckeyes at $4,25 to $4,50. Jersey Sweets, $8.

SEEDS—We can report a sale of 30 bushs Cloverseed at $7—small sales at $7,50. Timothy is selling in small lots at $2,75. Flaxseed is scarce and wanted at $2,50.

GRAIN—Winter Wheat is quiet and unchanged at $2,53 to $2,55 for Red, and 5 to 8c higher for White, as to quality. Oats firm but unchanged; sale of 3000 bushels in elevator, at 75c, free on board cars, and small sales at 77 to 80c. Corn is dull, and cannot be quoted above 90 to 95c, on wharf and track. Rye, $1,75 to $1,80. Nothing doing in Barley.

BUTTER—Is in better supply, and while the market is easier, prices are without quotable change, ranging from 45 to 50c for prime to choice Roll.

EGGS—Very irregular, being quoted all the way from 18 to 23c.

DRIED FRUIT—Quiet and unchanged; small sales at 10½ to 11½c for Peaches, and 7 to 8c for Apples.

PROVISIONS—Bacon is still somewhat excited and tending upward; we now quote 13 to 13¼c for Shoulders; 14½c for Ribbed, and 16c for Clear Sides; 18c for Plain Sugar Cured Hams, and 19c for Canvassed do. Lard, 16½c, in tierces, and 17c, in kegs and pails. Mess Pork, $26,50.

LARD OIL—Is firm and in steady demand at $1,10 for No. 2, and $1,35 for No. 1.

HAY—Baled Hay is selling on wharf at $20 to $25, as to quality. Loose Hay from country wagons may be quoted at $25 to $30 per ton.

SALT—Allegheny river brands are quoted at $1,75 to $1,80 for round lots, and $2, in a retail way.

BEANS—Are scarce and firm but unchanged; sales in store at $4,50 to $5 per bushel.

HOMINY—Quiet; sales at $6,25.

FLOUR—Is a shade firmer, but prices are unchanged; we continue to quote at $10,50 to $10,75 for good Spring Wheat; $11 to $11,25 for choice do; $11,75@$12,25 for Winter Wheat, and $14 to $15 for fancy brands. Rye Flour is qouted higher; $9,25 to $9,50.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, MONDAY, April 6, 1868.

CRUDE—The Crude market is quiet and a little dull but unchanged; we have but a single sale to report, 1000 bbls for April, seller's option, at 8¾c, and this is the same thing as 8¾c for spot oil, of which there is none in market. At no time, perhaps, for several years, particularly at this season of the year, has the supply of spot oil been so much reduced as at present; indeed, as we have already stated, there is absolutely no stock whatever, excepting that in the hands of refiners. For future deliveries there is but little doing, scarcely enough to establish quotations, and while the offerings are light, the same is equally true of the demand. We are cognizant of a sale of 500 bbls having been made in Philadelphia to-day at 15¾c, packages included. Oil City telegrams report the market quiet and prices nominal at $3 to $3,10.

REFINED—There was not a single transaction in bonded oil to-day, and the market is dull and weak, though so far as we could learn, there are no sellers here at a decline. In Philadelphia, as we are advised by telegraph, there was a sale of 1500 bbls for May at 25¾c, and 1500 for June at 26¾—showing a decline of fully a quarter, and this, we suppose, is in sympathy with Antwerp, which market is down to 42¾ francs. April, in the absence of sales, may be quoted at 24¾ to 25c, and July at 26¾ to 27c. All the year, buyer's option, is nominal at 31c.

BENZOLE—We are cognizant of a sale of 1000 bbls, on spot, in Philadelphia, at 13. At this figure it is doubtful whether it will pay a refiner for the trouble of saving it.

ARRIVALS—There were two arrivals reported to-day by river: 1600 bbls for Fisher & Bro.; 1100 for Mawhinney & Edwards; 1360 by Allegheny Valley Railroad, for Lockhart & Frew—making a total of 4066 bbls.

New York Dry Goods Market.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW YORK, April 6.—The cotton goods market is active and firmer with a tendency toward higher rates. Printed calicoes are ½c higher. Sprague, 14½a15c; Merrimack D, Cocheco and Pacific, 14½c, Merrimack W, 15½a16c; do Cambrics, 17c; Hamilton, 14c; Manchester 13c; Wamsutta, 10c. Printing cloths, 10c for standard makes. Standard sheets are firm and likely to advance; Atlantic A. and Indian Head, 19c. Pacific extra and H, 19½; Massachusetts I, 7-8, 18. Bleached muslins in good request and buoyant for New York mills; Wamsutta, 25; Tuscarora, 22½; Forest Dale and Bartlett, 18; Newmark C, 16; do. W, 18; Bootless, 15½; Bartlett 7-8, 15½; do. 31 inch, 14½. Ginghams looking up; Caledonia, 15½; and Lancaster, 18 to 19.

Toledo Market.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

TOLEDO, April 6.—Flour, receipts 2,020 barrels; market quiet. Wheat, receipts 3,885 bushels; Amber held at $2,62. with $2,60 offered. Corn, receipts 13,852 bushels; 1c. better; sales No. 1 at 91, buyer this March, 92½, seller, all June 90. Oats, receipts 1,206 bushels and steady; sales No. 1 at 68. Rye scarce at $1,62 for No. 1. Cloverseed dull and nominally lower, held at $6,50 without buyers.

Farm, Garden and Household.

The Housekeeper.

HINTS FOR HOUSEKEEPERS.—If the covers of sofas and chairs are dirty, they may be cleansed without being removed, by first washing them over with warm water and soap, rubbed over them with a flannel; then, before they are dry, sponge them over with a strong solution of salt and water, in which a small quantity of gall has been mixed. The windows of the room should be opened, so as to secure a perfect drying, and the colors and freshness of the articles will be restored. Floor cloths may be cleansed with a mixture of magnesia, only milk-warm, followed by warm water, in the same manner that carpets are cleaned. They should be rubbed with a dry flannel till nearly dried, then again wet over with a sponge dipped in milk, and immediately dried and rubbed with a flannel till the polish is restored. This is a process much to be preferred to that of rubbing the cloth with wax, which leaves it sticky and liable to retain dust and dirt for a long time. Very hot water should never be used in cleaning floor cloths, as it brings off the paint. Cleaning mirrors and polished steel articles is an easy operation when rightly understood. The greatest care should be taken in cleaning a mirror to use only the softest articles, lest the glass should be scratched. It should first be dusted with a feather brush, then washed over with a sponge dipped in spirits to remove the fly spots; after this it should be dusted with the powdered blue in a thin muslin bag, and finally polished with an old silk handkerchief. Polished steel articles, if rubbed every morning with leather, will not become dull or rusty; but if the rust has been suffered to gather, it must be immediately removed by covering the steel with sweet oil, and allowing it to remain on for two days; then sprinkle it over with finely powdered, unslaked lime, and rub it with polishing leather

BEEFSTEAK PIE.—Procure two pounds of rumpsteakes, which cut into slices half an inch thick, and season well with pepper and salt; dip each piece into flour, and lay them in a small pie-dish, finishing the top in the form of a dome, add a wineglassfull of water. then have ready half a pound of plain paste, cut off a small piece, which roll into a band, and lay round the edge of the dish, having previously wetted it with a paste brush dipped in water, then roll out the remainder of the paste to about the size of the dish, damp the band of paste upon the dish, and lay the other piece over; make a hole with a knife at the top, press the edges evenly down with your thumbs, trim the pie round with a knife, egg over the top with a paste-brush, and ornament it with the trimmings of the paste, according to fancy; bake it rather better than a hour in a moderate oven, and serve either hot or cold.

BOUILLON—Is the common soup of France and is used in almost every French family. Put into an earthen stock pot in the proportion of one pound of beef to one quart of cold water. Place it on the side of the fire, and let it become slowly hot. By so doing the fibre of the meat is enlarged, the gelatine is dissolved, and the savorous parts of the meat are diffused through the broth. When the object is simply to make a good, pure flavored beef broth, part of the shin or leg will answer the purpose, adding some vegetables, and letting it stew four or five hours; but if the meat is to be eaten, the rump or leg-of-mutton piece should be used.

WASHING FLUIDS AND CLOTHES.—A housekeeper in the Western Rural, in reply to a question whether the various washing fluids injure the clothes, says: "We can answer that we do not think they do, unless they are used too strong. When you use fluid the clothes do not require boiling, only scalding, and they must be rinsed in three waters. The reason why cloths turn yellow, and grow tenderer, is because the fluid is not all rinsed out. It saves a great deal of hard labor. The clothes should be soaked over night, and boiled before rubbing; after rubbing them suds and rinse."

FAMILY GLUE.—Crack the glue and put it in a bottle; add common whisky; shake up, cork tight, and in three or four days it can be used. It requires no heating; will keep for almost any length of time, and is at all times ready to use, except in the coldest of weather, when it will require warming. It must be kept tight, so that the whisky will not evaporate. The usual corks or stoppers should not be used. It will become clogged. A tin stopper, covering the bottle, but fitting as closely as possible, must be used.

VEAL AND HAM PIE.—Cut about a pound and a half of veal into thin slices, as also a quarter of a pound of cooked ham; season the veal rather highly with white peper and salt, with which cover the bottom of the dish, then lay over a few slices of ham, then the remainder of the veal, finishing with the remainder of the ham, add a wineglassful of water, and cover and bake as directed for beefsteak pie; a bay leaf will be an improvement.

BEEF HEART.—Let it be thoroughly well cooked, and the skin removed. Wipe it dry with a clean cloth; stuff it with veal stuffing; roast two hours and a quarter. Make a brown gravy, as for hare; and serve with the gravy and currant jelly. The most pleasant way to the palate of dressing this dish is to roast the heart for rather less than two hours, let it get cold, cut it in pieces, and jug it the same as hare.

Domestic Recipes.

TO KEEP INSECTS OUT OF BIRD CAGES.—Tie up a little sulphur in a silk bag and suspend it in the cage. For mocking birds this is essential to their health, and the sulphur will keep all the red ants and other insects from the cages of all kinds of birds. Red ants will never be found in a closet or drawer if a small bag of sulphur be kept constantly in these places.

FACTS ABOUT COLORS.—There are many little arts which may be used about colored clothes when washing them, which tend to keep a look of newness as long as they are worn. These are some of them: A spoonful of ox-gall to a gallon of water will set the colors of almost any goods soaked in it previously to washing. A tea cup of lye in a pail of water will improve the color of black goods. Nankin should lay in lye before being washed; it sets the color. A strong clean tea of common hay will preserve the color of French linens. Vinegar in the rinsing water, for pink or green calicoes will brighten them. Soda answers the same end for both purple and blue.

STUCCO WHITEWASH.—The following recipe is for making the celebrated Stucco Whitewash, which imparts to a house such a clear, fine, smooth color:

"Take half a bushel of nice unslacked lime; slack it with boiling water, coverimg it during the process to keep in the steam. Strain the liquor through a fine sieve or strainer, and add to it one peck of clean salt, previously dissolved in water; three pounds of ground rice, ground to a thin paste, and stirred and boiled hot; half a pound of powdered Spanish whiting, and one pound of clean glue, which has been previously dissolved by first soaking well, and then hanging it over a small fire, in a small kettle within a large one filled with water. Add five gallons of hot water to the whole mixture; stir it well and let it stand a few days covered from dirt. It should be put on quite hot; for this purpose it can be kept in a kettle on a portable furnace. It is said that about a pint of this mixture will cover a square yard upon the outside of a house, if properly applied. Brushes, more or less small, may be used according to the neatness of the job required. Coloring may be used to impart any desirable tinge to the preparation, which retains its brilliancy for a long time."

SOMETHING FOR THE SICK.—A correspondent writes: Frequently we find sick people whose stomachs reject all kinds of nourishment until conditions follow that in many instances terminate fatally. In twenty instances in which I have heard the popular sick-bed nourishments prescribed and rejected by an invalid's enfeebled stomach. I have never known the simple saucer of parched corn pudding, or bowl of gruel refused. The corn is roasted brown, precisely as we roast coffee ground as fine as meal, in a coffee mill, and made into either mush, gruel or thin cakes, baked lightly brown and given either warm or cold, clear, or with whatever dressing the stomach will receive or retain. Parched corn and meal boiled in skimmed milk, and fed frequently to children suffering from summer diarrhœa, will almost always cure, as it will dysentery in adults, and, I believe, the cholera in its earliest stages.

Wool.

There is a better tone to the market than there has been for some time; there has not been so little disposition for more than a year to crowd sales as at present. Holders are very firm, and manufacturers only buy as they want and what they want, those who have any stock at all hold off till necessity compels them to go into the market. Some of the largest manufacturers are well stocked up for the present, consequently there will be no very heavy sales made, probably not till after shearing again, yet all are confident that Wool will be wanted before another stock is put upon the market. Should one or two large firms go on the market within a couple of weeks; it would make a good deal of a spurt in Wool, but the goods market is not very brisk, nor at all satisfactory to manufacturers. excepting some very choice styles; these pay a margin, and some have obtained an advance on some styles; this encourages not only the recipients, but others who have not been sharers in such an advance, to keep their machinery moving, at the same time very few are anxious to do a very heavy business except those few who are working to orders. Still there is a much more hopeful feeling in every department than there has been for some time past, and this is not lost on Wool. The finest grades of Wool, that is real picklock, are very scarce, very little of it being on the market; this would command full rates, 75 cents, a good one. XX strictly so, is also scarce, but there is a large amount of XX upon the market whose range is rather low and is in supply, but of extra there is a good supply, and also a good demand, for there are few mills that are not using more or less extra medium; and coarse Wools are very scarce indeed, and lots which would yield any amount of delaine are still very scarce. Super pulled Wools are very scarce indeed, and sell very readily. Extras are in good supply, and good conditioned and well grown command good rates, but bad conditioned and short grown hang fire to a considerable extent, yet these are beginning to move now that the better kinds have advanced in price. Parties will buy short pulled now, who a few weeks ago would scarcely have looked at it. Canada combing is scarce, but some of our largest mills having laid in a pretty good supply of this style of Wool, the demand is not quite so active as it was a short time ago; there is not much doubt, however, but it will all be wanted at current rates. Foreign Wool is very quiet; there is little demand and little supply. The tariff and state of trade prevents any activity in these Wools. Texas, California and Oregon are in good demand, and are selling freely at good rates, when style of Wool and condition are considered. If some of our farmers in Texas, California and some of the Southern States would turn their attention to the Silesian stock and Escurials, they might soon supply a want which is now seriously felt by the manufacturers of the best style of goods, and the only reason why we have not a better class of goods manufactured in this country, is because we have not the style of Wool required for this purpose, and till our farmers take it up, this business must languish. The same is true of Combing Wools; there is no reason why every pound of worsted Wool which we require should not be produced in the States. As it is we pay a large amount of money every year for Canada Wool. In fact Canada is just as much visited by our buyers as any of the States in the Union. There has been a large increase in the production of this Wool, and we have no doubt that this year there will be a still further increase, and that before long we shall produce all the Wool required.

These sales for the week include 200,000 lbs Fleece, ranging from 48@52c for Michigan, Wisconsin and State; 50@54c for X Ohio; 54@58c for XX Ohio; 200 bales Pulled at 43@48c for super. and extra; 75,000 lbs California 26@38c; 4,000 lbs Unwashed 34 1-2c; 8 bales do. lamb, No. 1, 25c; 3 bales do. black, private terms; 2,000 lbs Burry Lake wool 22c; 50,000 lbs Texas 24@30c; and a small lot of fine Tub 55c.—U. S. Economist, New York, April 10th, '68.

Premium Butter.

At the fair of the Orleans county (Vt.) Agricultural Society, George B. Brewster, Irasburg, who was awarded the first premium on a tub of butter, submitted the following statement in regard to its manufacture:

"I keep twenty-three cows of the native stock, with a slight mixture of Durham; their feed was the fall feed in my mow fields, with pumpkins in the morning; the cream was gathered in three days from milk that set thirty-six hours after milking, the cream then set twenty-four hours, then was churned; when the butter came it was put in a wooden bowl and washed with spring water until the milk was all washed out, and the water ceased to be colored, and remained clear; then the Ashton salt is worked in by hand at the rate of one ounce to a pound of butter; the butter is then set away to stand twenty-four hours, then it is worked over by hand, taking a small quantity at a time and working out all the brine; then it is pounded down in the tub; the tub is filled within half an inch of the top; then it is covered with a cloth, over which is spread a thin layer of salt. This tub was packed the 4th of October. Cream is not churned the same day it is skimmed, as it will sometimes have a peculiar taste, which it does not have after standing twenty-four hours. In the fall the pans are filled two-thirds full, and the cream rises as well, but in summer it should be more shallow."

Decrease of Sheep in Illinois.

By private letters from Central Illinois we learn that there will be a big decrease in the number of sheep in Illinois this year. In addition to having sold off everything which could possibly go into the mutton market last fall, it seems as if half our flock masters (even many of the old hands) were trying to see how many sheep they could push into Chicago this spring. Many flocks of ewes went unbred last fall. On the whole I think the number to be short this season, will fall at least 15 per cent below that of a year ago.—Mirror and Farmer, N. H.

A regular meeting of the City Councils was held Monday, April 6th, at 2 o'clock P. M.

SELECT COUNCIL.

Members present—Messrs. W. R. Brown, A. M. Brown, Cochrane, Coffin, Coyle, Dunn, Gailaher, Gross, Herdman, Kehew, Morrow, McClintock, Ogden, Shipton, Wainwright, White, and President McAuley.

The minutes of the two preceding meetings were read and approved.

COMMUNICATIONS AND PETITIONS.

The President read a communication from the Mayor relative to toll gates within the limits of the city, and asking Councils to take the necessary action to have them removed; also referring to the ordinance requiring the cleaning of sidewalks on Tuesdays and Fridays, asking that the same be changed to Wednesdays and Saturdays.

Mr. Shipton moved that the communication be referred to the Committee on Streets and Roads. The motion was adopted.

Mr. Shipton presented a petition for a public lamp at Strawberry and Foster's alley. Referred to the Committee on Gas.

Mr. White, a petition for a sewer on Pennsylvania Avenue. Referred to Street Committe.

Mr. Kehew, a remonstrance against the passage of an ordinance providing for the grading and paving of Overhill street. Referred to Street Committee.

Mr. Cochran, a petition from residents on Clymer street, asking for a change of grade of said street so as to run the waterfrom Penn street to the Allegheny river, and against the placing of curb stone on Mulberry alley. Referred to Street Committee.

Mr. Coyle, a petition from citizens of Oakland, asking for water pipe in that district. Referred to Water Committee.

Mr. Coyle, a petition from residents on Colwell street, asking for the partial grading of the same. Referred to Street Committee.

Mr. Gallaher presented a petition from residents on Seventh street, asking that the construction of the proposed sewer on said street be postponed for the present. Referred to Street Committee with instruction to grant the prayer of the petitioners. C. C. non-concurred, and after amending by striking out "with instructions &c.," referred to the Street Committee. S. C. recede and concur in the action of C. C.

Mr. Cochran presented a petition from property-holders on Carroll street asking for the grading and paving of the same. Referred to the Street Committee.

Mr. McEwen, a petition for the opening of Webster street, from Roberts to Green street. Referred to the Street Committee.

FIFTH STREET SIDEWALK ORDINANCE.

Mr. Ogden presented the following:

The undersigned who united with others in asking Councils to widen the sidewalks on Fifth street desire to say that after consideration they are impressed with the belief that such legislation is unwise and improper, and desire to withdraw from any part in procuring the same, and ask you to rescind the ordinance lately passed, and as in duty bound, &c.

Signed by W. W. Patrick, Geo. R. White, W. H. Schmertz, H. McCallum, Wilson McCandless for Allegheny Bank, Thomas M. Howe, Eisner, Philips & Co., C. G. Hussey & Co., Bates & Bell. Accepted.

VETO MESSAGE.

The President announced the reception of a message from the Mayor vetoing the ordinance for the widening of the sidewalks on Fifth street.

Mr. A. M. Brown was opposed to receiving the message, only as a matter of information.

Mr. Ogden thought the Mayer had a right to veto the ordinance.

Mr. Gross moved that it be received and read.

Mr. Brown said that the supplement to the consolidation act took from the Mayor the veto power.

Mr. Morrow said that Councils had no official knowledge of the passage of the act referred to.

Mr. Gross thought Mr. Morrow's position a correct one, and insisted upon his motion.

Mr. Brown said that the Mayor failed to comply with the law which granted him the power to veto ordinances; that he should have called Councils together and presented his veto to them within five days from the date of its passage.

After some further discussion the motion of Mr. Gross was adopted.

The President then read as follows:

PITTSBURGH, PA., March 30, 1868.

To the Select and Common Councils of the City of Pittsburgh:

GENTLEMEN:—An ordinance entitled "an ordinance increasing the width of sidewalks on Fifth street, from Market to Smithfield street," passed by your honorable bodies on the 26th day of March, A. D. 1868, has been submitted to me for approval. While it would afford me great pleasure to co-operate with you in the adoption of any measure of public utility, I regret to say that I cannot yield my consent to the ordinance referred to, and, therefore, return it to you unsigned for the following reasons, viz:

1st. That the widening of the sidewalks would necessarily render the street too narrow for the throng of vehicles passing along that important thoroughfare.

2d. That the petition praying for the passage of the ordinance was submitted to but few of the owners of property along said street, and was generally signed by them who have no direct interest in the property.

3d. That the ordinance was hurried through the Councils without due regard to the wishes of those directly interested.

4th. That inasmuch as it is a novel project, probably involving litigation and affording doubtful precedent, it should not have been passed without great care and consideration.

Sincerely regretting that my sense of duty to the public interest would not permit me to endorse this measure,

I remain, yours, most respectfully.

JAMES BLACKMORE, Mayor.

Mr. A. M. Brown moved to re-consider the vote by which the ordinance was passed. Adopted.

Mr. A. M. Brown then moved that the ordinance pass.

The Chair stated that he had neglected to bring the whole matter before Councils, and asked permission to read the following petition to the Mayor:

James Blackmore, Mayor of the City of Pittsburgh:

The undersigned property owners residents and persons doing business on Fifth street, in said city, respectfully ask you to interfere and disapprove a certain ordinance, entitled "An ordinance increasing the width of the sidewalks on Fifth street, from Market to Smithfield street," passed by Councils on the 26th of March.

We object to this legislation as hasty, unwise, and exceedingly prejudicial to our interests. It is special in its character, probably illegal, and an improper interferance with the right of way upon said street. In addition to which we believe that if the question had been more fully understood by Councils, and the parties in interest accorded a fuller hearing, the action would have been different. For these reasons, and many others which will readily suggest themselves to your Honor, we urge you not to approve said ordinance, and as in duty bound, &c.

Lyon, Shorb & Co., John B. Murray, President of the Exchange National Bank, James Morton, Trustee, Adams Express Co., George Bingham, Agent, Dunseath & Haslett, Louisa M. Childs, by her Attorney, Thomas B. Hamilton, George Kent, A. V. Holmes, Mrs. E. N. Davis, and others.

Mr. Brown said that there was doubtless a diversity of opinion relative to the matter among the property holders on the street, just as there would be in regard to any other public improvement. He thought the citizens of Pittsburgh generally were as deeply interested in the matter as the property owners. The reasons for the veto were not good ones. He had no special interest in it, but as a matter of public interest he advocated the measure.

Mr. Shipton said he had voted for the adoption of the ordinance with the understanding that the property owners were generally in favor of the measure, but having ascertained that such was not the case, he must vote to sustain the veto.

Mr. Ogden said he had opposed the passage of the ordinance from the beginning, and he would continne to do so.

The question was then put and the veto sustained by a vote of 16 to 5.

—In C. C. a motion to concur was lost by a tie vote—ayes 14, nays 14, the President voting in the negative.

After some discussion the following, offered by Mr. Robb, was adopted in C. C.

WHEREAS, an ordinance was passed on the 26th of March for the widening of the sidewalks on Fifth street, between Market and Smithfield street, which ordinance was vetoed by the Mayor, and returned to Councils on the 6th of April,

Resolved, it is hereby submitted to the City Solicitor who is requested to give his opinion whether the ordinance is or is not valid, the veto not having been returned within five days as required by the act of assembly.

MINERSVILLE PASSENGER RAILWAY.

Mr. Morrow called up the ordinance relative to the Minersville Railway keeping streets clean and in repair, which was presented in Common Council at the preceding meeting, read three times and passed, and in S. C. laid over.

Mr. W. R. Brown (in the Chair) read the ordinance.

Mr. McAuley moved to strike out five and insert three years.

After some discussion, Mr. McAuley withdrew his motion.

Select Council then concurred with Common Council in passing the ordinance.

THE HAILMAN BEQUEST.

Mr. Gross arose to a question of privilege. He said that in the will of the late J. W. Hailman, of East Liberty, there was a bequest to the poor of the city of Pittsburgh of $10,000, that the money had been paid over and invested in 7-30 bonds; but as yet the poor had received no benefit from it. He therefore offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That the members of the Select and Common Councils be and are hereby appointed a Committee of Almoners, who, with the advice of the Mayor, shall have power to invest the fund bequeathed to the poor of the city in the will of the late J. W. Hailman, Esq., and apply the yearly accruing interest of said fund, as in their judgment may seem best, said Committee rendering a yearly account of their disbursements to the Councils of which they are members.

Mr. McAuley said that the will bequeathed to the Mayor and Presidents of Councils for the use of the poor of Pittsburgh, to be expended for bread and potatoes and coal for persons in actual need, and of course no action of Councils in regard to the matter would be binding upon them. They would, however, be glad to get rid of it, and would receive any suggestions that Councils might make in the matter. The sum had been increased to over $10,000, and the trustees would like to make it reach $12,000 if possible.

Mr. Gross said he brought the matter up at the suggestion of Mr. Hailman's son, but in order to have a better understanding of the matter he would withdraw the resolution for the present.

OPENING OF WEBSTER STREET.

Mr. McEwen presented an ordinance for the opening of Webster street from Roberts to Gum. After some discussion passed to a second reading.

LAWRENCE FIRE COMPANY.

Mr. Gross presented the report of the Committee on City Property, accompained by a resolution authorizing the purchase of a lot and erection of an Engine House in Lawrenceville for the Lawrence Steam Fire and Hose Company.

Mr. McAuley moved to amend by striking out that portion of the resolution relative to the erection of an engine house.

Mr. Shipton moved to amend by limiting the sum to be paid to $5,000.

Mr. Gallaher moved to amend by making the sum $1,000.

Mr. McAuley moved that all amendments relative to the price to be paid be laid on the table. Adopted.

Mr. Ogden moved the resolution be laid on the table. Lost.

Mr. Morrow moved that the Committee on City Property be instructed to ascertain the cost of a lot and report the same to Councils, and called the yeas and nays, with following result:

Yeas—Messrs. Coffin, Dickson, Dunn, Gallaher, Morrow, Ogden and White—7.

Nays—Messrs. W. R. Brown, A. M. Brown, Cochrane, Gross, Kehew, McClintock, McEwen, Rafferty, Shipton, Wainwright and President McAuley.

Mr. Shipton moved to amend by fixing the sum to be paid at $2,500, which was adopted.

Mr. McAuley moved that the rules be suspended. Adopted.

Mr. A. M. Brown moved the final passage of the resolution as amended. Adopted.

PAVING CONTRACT.

Mr. McEwen presented a communication from John McGalorey, setting forth that he had a contract with the borough of Lawrenceville for grading and paving, on which he had spent several thousand dollars, and asking that the City Engineer give him the grade of Chestnut street, so that he could proceed with his work. Referred to Investigating Committee.

PETITIONS.

Mr. A. M. Brown presented a petition from W. H. Devore and others residing on Grant street, asking to be relieved from assessment for the Virgin alley sewer. Referred to the Street Committee.

Mr. Wainwright presented a petition from the citizens of Lawrenceville, asking for the grading and paving of Fairview alley, in Lawrenceville. Referred to the Street Committee.

Adjourned.

Common Council.

Present: Messrs. Ahlborn, Barton, Batchelor, Berger, Boggs, Brush, Carroll, Daub, Davis, Fitzimmons, Gerner, Hare, Hemphill, Hillerman, House, Jeremy, Moorhead, Palmer, Rebman, Reed, Reynolds, Robb, Rosewell, Scott, A., Sims, Torley, Torrens, Vick, Weldon, Welsh, Zern and President Tomlinson.

Absent: Messrs. Barnhill, Beales, Caskey, Dravo, Friday, Herron, Kremer, Mawhinney, Meyer, McCleane, Scott, J. R., and Verner.

The minutes of the preceding meeting were read and approved.

PETITIONS, &C.

Mr. Vick, Second ward, presented a petition for the grading and paving of Third and Fourth streets, at the intersection of Try street. Referred to Street Committee.

Also, a remonstrance against the widening of a portion of Second street. Referred to Street Committee.

Also, a communication from Leopold Einstein, tobacconist, for a reduction of business tax. Referred to Finance Committee, with power to act.

Mr. Sims, a petition from R. A. Colville for reduction of his business tax. Referred to Finance Committee with power to act.

Mr. Ahlborn presented a bill of Peter Wentzell & Co., for building sewer across part of Sherman street, Lawrenceville, amounting to ninety-two dollars. Referred to Street Committee.

WATER PRIVILEGES.

Mr. A. Scott presented a petition from citizens of Lawrenceville, asking for the extension of water pipe to that borough without delay.

Mr. Scott moved to refer it to Water Comtee, with power to act.

Mr. Davis moved to amend by striking out "with power to act."

Messrs. Scott and Herron spoke against the amendment, and Mr. Robb favored it.

The amendment was lost, and the motion to refer "with power to act" prevailed.

Mr. Scott offered the following:

Resolved, That the Water Committee be and they are hereby authorized to make such extensions of water pipes as they may deem proper and expedient throughout the city, as now constituted under the consolidation act; and also to make such repairs and improvements to the present water works as they deem needful. Payments for the same to be made out of proceeds of "Water Extension Loan Bonds" now authorized to be issued by ordinance, and the Water Committee are hereby empowered to certify for said payments in the usual manner. Referred to Water Committee.

In S. C. amended by adding: "Provided, however, nothing herein contained shall be so construed as to authorize the Water Committee to expend any amount of money beyond their appropriation, added to what may be realized from the sale of "Water Loan Bonds."

C. C. refused to recede and concur in the amendment.

ALLEGHENY VALLEY RAILROAD.

Mr. Zern presented a communication from citizens of Pike street, relative to obstruction caused by the Allegheny Valley Railroad, covering the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Committee on Railroads be requested to summon witnesses residing on said Pike street as to the truth of allegations, and if found correct to recommend to Council what additional legislation is required to compel said railroad company to comply with the ordinance.

The resolution and communication were referred to Railroad Committee.

STREET IMPROVEMENTS.

Mr. Torrens presented a petition from property holders on Broad street, East Liberty, praying for the opening of a portion thereof, some two hundred feet now enclosed, and for the laying down of a board walk on the north side from Negley avenue to Station street. Referred to Committee on Roads.

Mr. Gerner, of Oakland, a petition for the grading of Forbes street from Brady to Senaca street, Oakland district. Referred to Committee on Roads.

Mr. Reynolds, a petition for a public sewer on Chestnut street, Lawrenceville. Referred to Street Committee.

Also, a petition for the grading and paving of Long alley from Lewis alley to the Allegheny Valley railroad. Referred to Street Committee.

Also, a communication from William Shaw in relation to Morris alley, Lawrenceville. Referred to Survey Committee.

THANKS TO LEGISLATORS.

Mr. Rebman offered the following:

Resolved, That the thanks of the Select and Common Councils of the City of Pittsburgh are hereby tendered to Messrs. Wilson, Ford and Miller, members of the House of Representatives now in session, for their successful efforts in defeating House bill No. 1,026, generally known as the Retrocession bill.

Resolved, That the Clerks of Council be directed to furnish said gentlemen with certified copies of the above resolution.

Mr. Rebman moved the adoption of the resolutions:

Mr. Barton, Liberty township, called for the yeas and nays. They were called, resulting:

Ayes—Messrs. Ahlborn, Berger, Boggs, Brush, Carroll, Daub, Davis, (Collins,) Fitzsimmons, Hemphill, Herron, Hillerman, House, Jeremy, Meyer, Rebman, Reynolds, Robb, Rosewell, A. Scott, Sims, Torley, Torrens, Vick, Weldon, Welsh, Zern, and President Tomlinson—27.

Nays—Messrs. Barton, Batchelor, Gerner, Hare, Moorhead, Palmer and Reed—7.

STREET COMMITTEE REPORT.

Mr. Weldon, Third ward, chairman of Street Committee, presented a report, as follows:

In the matter of the grading and paving of Apple alley, Eighth ward, from Marion to Miltenberger street, your Committee would postpone action for the present.

The City Engineer has been directed to make a survey of Wainwright street, Lawrenceville, from Smallman to Allegheny river, and also to prepare a series of house numbers for Bluff street, beginning at the west end.

The petition for a board walk in Bloomfield has been referred to a sub-committee for examination.

The Committee also reported the following ordinances: For grading and paving Penn street from Taylor to Boundary, Gum street from Webster to Cliff, St. Mary's avenue, Lawrenceville, from Butler street to the river; also, an ordinance granting the Western Union Telegraph Company permission to erect four poles on Bellfontaine street, above Butler, Lawrenceville.

In the matter of straightening Second street, Eighth ward, beyond the Birmingham bridge, the Committee is awaiting a survey to be made by the Connellsville Railroad Company for the re-location of their road at that point.

Also, an ordinance for grading and paving Spring alley from Morris to Rush streets.

The report was accepted, and ordinances referred to were read once and laid over under the rules.

LAWRENCEVILLE MATTERS.

Mr. Reynolds presented a report from the Committee on the widening of Chestnut street, Lawrenceville. The Committee are of the opinion that there is no immediate necessity for said widening, and also state that the citizens residing on said street are opposed thereto. The report was received and the Committee continued.

Mr. Reynolds also presented an ordinance repealing so much of an ordinance passed by the Council of the borough of Lawrenceville as authorized the widening of Chestnut street,

Mr. Reynolds moved that the rules be suspended and the ordinonce read three times and passed. Lost.

The ordinance was laid over till next meeting.

Mr. Reynolds presented a petition from K. Bracken relative to his contract with Lawrenceville for the paving and curbing of St. Mary's avenue in that borough. Referred to Investigating Committee already appointed.

ORDINANCES ADOPTED.

The following ordinances, laid over at last meeting, were taken up, and passed:

For grading, paving and curbing of Greenough street, Eighth ward.

Grading and paving of Miltenberger street, from Pennsylvania avenue to Bluff street.

Grading and paving of Hazlett's alley, from Foster street to Smallman street.

In S. C. laid over.

BUILDING INSPECTOR.

Mr. Herron said in February he offered a resolution relative to the appointment of a Building Inspector, which was referred to the Ordinance Committee. He had not heard anything about it since, and would inquire of members of the Committee what action they had taken.

Mr. Daub, of the Ordinance Committee, stated the resolution referred to had not been before them.

GAS COMPANIES.

Mr. Hillerman presented a memorial relative to gas companies, as follows:

WHEREAS, The Legislature has granted charters to different companies for the manufacture of gas in the former city of Pittsburgh;

AND WHEREAS, a conflict of interest is likely to arise between said companies, and in order to prevent the same, your petitioners pray your honorable bodies to pass an ordinance praying the Legislature to enact a law restricting the various companies as follows:

The Pittsburgh Gas Company shall have the exclusive right to lay pipes and supply gas to that portion of the consolidated city of Pittsburgh included in the original ten words of the old city, and in that portion of the city district known as the townships of Pitt and Oakland.

The East Liberty gas company shall have the exclusive privilege of supplying the citizens of said village and the township of Liberty.

The Wilkinsburg gas company shall have the exclusive right to supply with gas the citizens of Wilkinsburg and Wilkins township.

That the Lawrenceville gas company shall have the exclusive right of laying pipes and supplying gas in that portion of the city of Pittsburgh which formerly constituted the borough of Lawrenceville, and north and east thereof, extending their pipes and supplying gas to the boroughs of Sharpsburg and Millvale.

And that said companies herein mentioned shall not have power to increase the price, nor charge private consumers more than one dollar and fifty cents for each 1,000 cubic feet of gas, exclusive of Government tax, and your petitioners will ever pray, &c.

Resolved, That Councils recommend the passage of an act of Assembly defining the rights and liberties of the several companies named in the foregoing memorial.

[No signatures were attached to the memorial.]

On motion of Mr. Brush, the matter was laid over till next meeting.

Mr. Herron offered a resolution that when Councils adjourn they adjourn to meet on the last Monday of April, at two o'clock P. M.

In all of which action not otherwise noticed the Select Council concurred.

On motion adjourned.

About Insurance.

The present is a favorable season to insure property and perishable effects against fire, and those desiring to take out a policy in an old, first-class and reliable insurance company are directed to the inducements offered in those characteristics by the Ætna Insurance Company, of Hartford, Conn., for which Messrs. A. A. Carrier & Bro., No. 63 Fourth street, are the agents. This company is widely known throughout the country as one of the safest and soundest institutions of the character in the United States. Its losses are always promptly met, and legal technicalities are never made occasions for evading or attempting to evade losses actually sustained from fire by parties assured. Nearly half a century in existence it has each year grown stronger and more stable till now it is beyond the possibility of becoming bankrupt or unsafe. During its long life it has paid over twenty-three millions of dollars to the assured, and yet by the last sworn semi-annual report its assets are shown to closely border on four and one-half millions. The Ætna is no cheap company, but its rates are as liberal and remarkable as consistent with reliable indemnity, and, with insurance as well as all things else, the best is certainly by far the cheapest. If a proper estimate is formed of the ruin and destruction occasioned by the burning of twenty-three million dollars of property, among people in every grade and position, in amounts large and small, under every conceivable circumstance, it will give a correct idea of the Company's good works, and the value of genuine under-writing.

Baldwin Township.

The Teachers' Institute of Baldwin Township held a stated meeting on the 4th inst, at McGibbony school house No. 6. The schools were dismissed at noon, and in the afternoon the teachers engaged in class drills, in mental and written arithmetic and geography. The Teachers of the township and a few from neighboring townships, participated in these exercises, which were very interesting and instructive; At the request of the teachers W. D. Hunt, delivered an able address on the importance of Teachers' Institutes, the means of rendering them profitable and especially the great advantage to the teachers themselves resulting from these meetings, and the mutual enterchange of sentiment and social amenities for which they afford such favorable opportunity. The Directors of the township have during the season built and furnished a school house equal in all appointments to any to be found in the rural districts of Allegheny county. They have also maintained their school for seven months of the past school year. The cause of education seems to have vigorous and effective friends in Baldwin, which cannot fail to work beneficent results on the rising generation.

The Laws Enforced.

Our neighbors over the river it appears object to the selling of tobacco and segars on the Sabbath day, in consequence of which proceedings have been instituted against a number of dealers for violating the Sunday law. The proprietor of a store on Ohio street, near Sandusky, Bernard by name, was arrested yesterday morning, and after a hearing before the Mayor fined twenty-five dollars and costs. Dealers will do well to take warning, and those addicted to the use of tobacco in Allegheny must hereafter lay in a supply on Saturday evening, as the Mayor is determined to enforce the penalty of the law in every case brought before him.

The tobacco dealers, however, are not the only violators of the Sabbath within the limits of Allegheny city, as we are credibly informed Sunday is the principal market day with a number of dealers at the cattle yards in that city. There are, however, a number of dealers who refuse to buy and sell on Sunday, and consequently the violators of the law have a decided advantage over their more conscientious friends. If selling segars and tobacco on Sunday is a violation of law, speculating in cattle is equally so. Will it receive the attention of the authorities?

Amusements.

OPERA HOUSE—The present week at the Opera House will be devoted to benefits to the company. To-night, Mr. Mark Bates, the talented "Leading Man" of the company, takes a benefit, when "The Serf; or Love Levels All" will be presented, with Mr. Bates in the leading role, and with "Ben Bolt" as an afterpiece. The Box sheet for the present engagement will be opened tomorrow morning.

PITTSBURGH THEATRE.—The Theatre Comique continues to receive a proportionate share of the public patronage, and is destined to be one of the most popular places of amusement in the city. Mr. Aims' liberality in the selection of his company will doubtless inure to his profit in the end. The entertainments at the Old Theatre are spicy, and highly appreciated by all.

MASONIC HALL.—A short season of fun is promised at Masonic Hall during the present week, commencing Thursday night. The celebrated Arlington Minstrels, from Chicago, will make their debut on Thursday, led by the champion delineator of negro character, Billy Arlington. The company is one of the largest now traveling, and with such men as Arlington & Bergers cannot fail to be a good one.

Taken to Dixmont.—Peter Welford, the insane man who was brought from the West by his brother and placed in the lock-up Saturday night, an account of which we published yesterday morning, was removed to Dixmont Hospital last evening by his father and brother.

The Rioters—Additional Arrests.

Yesterday evening officer Irwin arrested Matthias Plott and John Kline on Fifth street, near Smithfield, and took them to the lock-up. The arrest was instigated from a conversation between the parties, which led the officer to believe that they were engaged in the coal miners' riot at Pine Run. After a hearing Plott was committed to jail for trial in default of fifteen hundred dollars bail for his appearanc, and Kline was locked up for a further hearing.

John and Jonathan Sharkley, a notice of whose arrest we published yesterday morning, after a hearing were, in default of one thousand dollars bail each for their appearance at Court, committed to jail.

A Novel Funeral.

"Jerry," an old horse belonging to the Neptune Fire Company, died Sunday evening, and yesterday afternoon the members of the Company attended his funeral en masse. "Jerry" was loaded on a dray and hauled to the "Point," followed by the hose carriage and the members of the Company on foot.

"Jerry" was the "oldest and best horse in the business," and no money would have bought him. He received severe injuries at the recent fire at Graff, Bennet & Co.'s, by being overheated and over exerted in getting to the scene of conflagration. The Company, one of the most efficient in the city, will make some effort to purchase a horse to supply "Jerry's" place, but in the meanwhile will have to haul their engine by hand.

Joseph S. Finch & Co.

We believe the largest and best conducted distillery in Western Pennsylvania is that of Mr. Joseph S. Finch & Co., Nos. 185, 187, 189, 191, 193 and 195 First street. It is admirably arranged and fitted throughout, and its copper distilled pure rye whisky enjoys a national reputation, being free of all drugs and deleterious substances, and distilled with unusual care and skill. The firm deal largely in foreign wines and liquors and keep always a very fine stock on hand. They make a leading specialty of hops and have facilities for bringing to this market the very best quality, which they can afford to supply the trade at growers' rates. We commend this representative house to the patronage of readers desiring goods in their line.

Larceny.—James Hughes, a manufacturer of cutlery on Fourth street, made information before the Mayor, yesterday, charging J. W. Lee with larceny. Lee was employed by the prosecutor as a finisher, and, it is alleged, was given three dozen carving knives to finish, a portion of which he failed to turn in. Out of the three dozen but fourteen could be accounted for. He was arrested and committed for a hearing.

Nicolson Pavement.—The property owners and residents on Wood street from Fifth to Liberty are desirous of having that portion of the street paved with the Nicolson pavement. It makes a delightful street and will in all probability entirely supercede the cobble stone nuisauce, with which the streets of our city have so long been encumbered.

Surety of the Peace.—Peter Schusler yesterday made information before Alderman Taylor, against Charles Neff for surety of the peace. The parties reside in East Liberty, and, it appears, they had become involved in a family quarrel, during which Neff threatened Schusler with violence. Neff was arrested and held for a hearing.

Committed for Trial.—Yesterday morning Roger O'Marra, of the Mayor's police, arrested John Bell, who it appears is implicated in robbing Mrs. Lattzman, of East Birmingham, an account of which we published yesterday. Bell, after a hearing, was committed for trial in default of the required bail for his appear ance a Court.

Temperance Meeting.—The fourth of a course of lectures before the Allegheny Temperance League will be delivered this evening in the First Presbyterian Church, Beaver street, Rev. Elliot E. Swift. Subject: "What are the specific duties of the Church in regard to the Temperance Reform, or how she may best promote it?"

Bank Statements.—Elsewhere we publish the quarterly statements of the National Banks of this city. The reports furnish a great deal of information to those interested in local financial matters.

Information is wanted by William Brown, of Providence, Lycoming county, Pa., of Mr. Thomas Coleman and wife, Susan Coleman, who four years ago resided in this county.

Hot Shot and Shell.

A letter from Theo. D. C. Miller, M. D., Graduate of Bellevue Hospital Medical College, New York:

Dr. Wolcott, No. 170 Chatham Square, New York—Dear Sir: Pardon the liberty, but I wish to have an agency from you for testing your valuable remedy, Pain Paint, on all suffering pain, free of cost, who may apply at my drug store, No. 1,335 Third avenue. I am a graduate of Bellevue Hospital Medical College. I know that doctors are jealous of Pain Paint, for it makes their old dry bones rattle terribly; but I sell it right under their very nose, just to make them think of starvation, if nothing more. I will not be bullied by a gang of half-made doctors, two-thirds of whom ought not to have the consolation of Pain Paint when suffering from disease aggravated by the use of their own deleterious nostrums. I am bound to fight it out on this line if it takes all summer. I am confident I can drive them from the field with Pain Paint. Expecting an early answer, I am, most truly THEO. D. C. MILLER, M. D.,

OFFICE PITTSBURGH CLOAK HOUSE.

MESSRS. CARSON BROS. 49 ST. CLAIR STREET—Gents: Having had the Empire Sewing Machine in use for some time we pronounce it the head and front of all other machines now in use. Since the special introduction of the cloak trade in Pittsburgh we have had the Singer Machine, which, after a fair test, we pronounce a moiety in comparison with the Empire, and in lieu thereof we heartily recommend the Empire to every lady or head of a family wanting a good, substantial, and at the same time the only fit Sewing Machine now offered for public favor.

Yours, respectfully,

SPENCE BROTHERS,
